The 'Army' Story: Food Aid to Music

By NORMAND POIRIER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

To keep a record of all the missions of mercy the Pottstown Salvation Army unit makes during one year would be impossible.

It'd mean that you'd have to sit in on a score of telephone calls each day, listen to every husband-wife conference, watch every trip to a foodless home.

Statistics are always cold. At best they give on a vague idea of work accomplished.

But even statistics, in the case of the Salvation Army, are so impressive that they take one by surprise.

These are a few figures from the past year's dossier, for instance:

Grocery orders provided, 481; shoes for children, 71 pairs; utilities, 37; coal orders, 42; emergency services, 17; articles of furniture, 368; units of clothing, 714; servicemen departure treats, 12; transient meals, 217; transient lodgings, 61.

Multiply each one of these "emergency" services by a hundred—or a thousand—and you'll have some idea how often the impact of the work being done by the "Army" hits the community — making better citizens.

It takes a lot of work, probably more than you think. And it takes money, but probably not nearly as much as you'd think.

THIS YEAR, as part of the Pottstown United Fund, the Salvation Army will receive $20,000 to carry out its work.

And from the impressive showing made by the advance gift committee of the United Fund at the Fund's kick-off dinner it looks as though each of the Fund agencies, including the "Army," will get its total budget allotment.

The past year, the "Army" had to conduct a separate drive to get enough money to operate.

The Army asked for $23,000 the past year but received only $9,500, from a United Fund drive that fell short of its goal.

A separate drive put on by themselves netted another $9,851.

But this year, with the announcement that $74,000 of the $182,000 goal had already been raised by kickoff time, the Salvation Army had a much more joyous grin on its face.

SAID Capt. C. Robert Flinn, in charge of the local Citadel, "We were very much encouraged by the first reports concerning this year's drive. We hope the drive will be a big success so that the Salvation Army can do an effective service for Pottstown.

"We have the plant and we feel we have the skills and access to the best in trained leadership.

"If the people of Pottstown respond to the United Fund, we in the Salvation Army, will dedicate our best to the citizens of this community.

The best way to get an idea of the scope of the work carried on by the Army is to take a trip through the beautiful Citadel on King street erected in 1951.

Capt. Flinn started the tour in a large recreation-meeting room, he pointed out how children were taught lessons each week.

Right now 57 children are tutored in various wind instruments twice a week by the captain and Richard Koons.

The pupils are children who otherwise wouldn't have the opportunity to learn music.

All lessons are gratis and all instruments are furnished by the "Army."

IN ANOTHER smaller room, the captain revealed, was a larder stocked with canned goods—spaghetti, beans, soup, and many other items, always on hand in cases of emergencies—families who need food until pay day, burned out families, luckless folk who can't temporarily provide for themselves

"We are not a disaster relief agency," he said, "but we're always ready to help anyone in an emergency."

Another room revealed stocks of used clothing. The clothing—men's suits, dresses, trousers, shoes, shirts, sweaters—had all been cleaned, mended.

"We have them all sorted, as you can see, for anyone from the infant stage up."

ON THE second floor, the captain opened doors to craft rooms, where children learn while they enjoy themselves.

Several other rooms were for Sunday school classes, conferences, meetings.

On the top floor is a room containing hundreds of new, never-before-worn items of clothing.

"Most of them, you can see, are for infants, and young children. We're always ready."

On the second floor is the beautiful chapel where services are held. Impressively calm, the room seats about 175 persons.

There is no dormitory in the Citadel.

"When we have cases where people need a room we get them one in a lodging house in town here," he said.

As the captain opened the outside door at the end of the tour (Continued on Last Page)

Ban in Effect

Lindauer Puts Dampener on Outdoor Fires

Borough Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer yesterday put a ban on any outdoor fires for the duration of the present drought.

He said he believed the dangers from outdoor fires now are even greater than they were the past Aug. 31, during the record-breaking heat wave, when he issued such a ban the first time.

Yesterday's ban will go into effect this morning, he said, barring a rain during the night. He said it will stay in effect "until we get a hard rain."

Outlawed during the ban will be any kind of fire—whether in fireplace or incinerator or in fields that the owner wants to "burn over." This ban includes burning fallen leaves.

The borough fire code forbids "burning over" fires in the borough.

New Pump Is Asked To Quell Dump Fires

Operation dump brewed and erupted all over again last night on council floor.

Just about everybody got into the act.

Firemen, councilmen and the garbage collector applied their collective wisdom on the rat and roach-infested borough dump.

To say that there have been more stimulating and more productive sessions in borough hall would be similar to saying that Joe Bish was somewhat less a political leader than Franklin D. Roosevelt.

When cigar smoke had almost immersed the little group and after 90 minutes of rehashing old charges, council's finance, health and sanitation and fire committees took their only decisive action of the night.

Committeemen set aside next Sunday afternoon as demonstration day at the dump.

They voted to meet at the sewage disposal plant at 1:30 o'clock Sunday to watch two type pumps in action.

Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden read portions of the contract between the borough and Garbage Collector Donald E. Woodley.

The contract stipulates the borough must provide the equipment (workable pump and hose) to Woodley and that the garbage collector then is responsible for maintenance of the dump.

The committee expect to recommend the purchase of the best pump after Sunday's demonstration.

Gulden asserted, "The contract calls for us to provide the equipment. If the principal fault has been lack of a pump on the dump, then the fault lies with this office."

THE BOROUGH manager said he has attempted to maintain the dump at the least possible expense to the borough, but that in view of recent fires the purchase of a pump "is probably the only solution."

There was an old pump at the dump which was removed while the secondary disposal plant was under construction.

Woodley said he spent $50 on the

This could be good advice to people who think that a bedspread 104 years old and still in tip-top condition can't be out-matched by The Mercury's resourceful readers.

It was also the motto of Potttown housewives who brought elegant bedspreads out of attic and cedar chests, and flooded The Mercury with phone calls.

The woman who touched off the spread spree, Mrs. Horace Prizer, 260 West King street, did so in answer to a brief item in Monday's Mercury which mentioned, purely as a "for instance" that a newspread about an unusual bed covering might win a prize.

Although Mrs. Prizer's 104-year-old spread seemed to be difficult, if not impossible to match, other area housewives soon topped it yesterday.

In the flood of phone calls to The Mercury early yesterday there were three consecutive calls from women with spreads even older than 104 years.

Mrs. Albert Istenes, 243 Chestnut street, not only had the oldest spread of the three—hers dates back to 1837—but also had some light to throw on the whys and whats of bedspread-weaving in the Pottstown area.

Reward Fund Raised To Solve Theft Cases

The new reward fund for information about the recent wave of burglaries in the borough got a boost yesterday.

Ray H. Meyer, manager of the Hippodrome theater, announced that his company would add $25 to the fund, bringing it to $50.

The fund was started Monday by H. Melvin Glingrich, president of Melbrooke Textiles Incorporated, who put up the first $25.

Both the textile and theater companies have been recent victims of burglars—the former, the past Friday; the latter, early Monday morning.

Meyer represents William Goldman theaters, owner of both the Strand and Hippodrome theaters.

The Strand was robbed of more than $500 when burglars broke open a safe in the manager's office, evidently after hiding in the theater following the Sunday night show.

The textile plant office was robbed of $30 on Friday in the second burglary there in two years.

POTTSTOWN RESIDENTS who would like to win the reward fund have a wide range of operation, a survey of recent burglaries showed.

The reward will be for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for unsolved major break-ins in Pottstown.

The information does not have to pertain directly to a major theft.

Aug. 31—Thieves broke into the home of Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells on North Rohland street while he and his family were vacationing. They ransacked the house, got $248 in cash, plus jewelry.

Two Pupils Injured In Separate Mishaps At Royersford High

A Royersford High school girl, hockeyist and an eighth grade boy were injured in separate accidents at the school yesterday afternoon.

Margaret Garber, 925 Walnut street, was struck in the left eye by a hockey ball during gym practice. The impact shattered her glasses and fragments entered her eye. She was treated by Dr. J. J. Meron, who removed the glass particles and the girl was apparently fully recovered.

After school, while the High school gridders were practicing, Robert Zollinhofer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Zollinhofer, Fifth avenue and Washington street, suffered a fracture of the left ankle while at play with other boys. The lad, not a member of the team, was hurt when he reportedly was tackled by another youth. He was taken to Memorial hospital, Pottstown, in Friendship Community ambulance.

Hospital trustees reported the construction picture has improved since the strike.

Heavy steel girder work along Charlotte street has been completed.

The project is scheduled for completion by Sept. 1954.

It was reported Elizabeth Swee-ney assumed her duties as director of nursing Oct. 1 and Jane Rowlands became director of education for the school of nursing on the same day.

Edward H. Prescott, assistant administrator of Williamsport hospital, will become administrator at Pottstown hospital on Nov. 16.

President Charles L. Schulz presided at Monday's dinner session in the hospital.

35,000 Pencils, Old Firearms Among Collections to Go on Exhibit Here

If all you do with your spare time is doodle or sit back in your easy chair and twiddle your thumbs, you'll soon get a chance to see what some more energetic area residents accomplish in their extra hours.

To say that the sight will be an eye-opener would be like calling Niagara Falls a trickle of water.

Here's what one hobbyist will exhibit: A collection of 35,000 pencils, gathered from every nook and cranny of the world.

Another will show miniature Mummies' parade string bands.

A third will present his collection of old firearms. These ancient muzzle loaders, far from being rusty blunderbusses, are kept in tip-top condition and are used by the hobbyist on his present-day hunting trips.

THE CHARITY event, which the Pottstown ABC chapter plans as an annual affair, will be held in the armory on King street. In forwarding permission to use the armory, the adjutant general of the United States lauded the work as a worthwhile project.

Proceeds will go to an area cerebral palsy clinic. It is part of the national and local ABC drive for funds for this purpose.

Bowen stressed that the exhibits won't all hark back to bygone years. They'll range right up to the electronic and scientific.

The Pottstown Amateur Radio club will present an exhibit and will also transmit, free of charge, messages to servicemen all over the US and the rest of the world.

The ABC club also anticipates an exhibit of the continuous hatching of live chicks. If you attend, you stand a chance of taking the chicks home with you. They'll be given to visitors.

The theme of the show is "Share Your Hobby to Help Someone Walk." The general chairman said the club is particularly interested in getting local hobbyists to enter newspapers, copper embossed pictures, stamps and candles.

Together with this, there'll be at least five antique autos, shown by three exhibitors.

That's a rundown of the exhibits Joe L. Bowen received up to last night for the American Business club's hobby show scheduled for Nov. 29 and 30.

Bowen, general chairman of the show, emphasized that the applications thus far have come to him on word-of-mouth information only.

A total of 150 entries will be accepted for the show with the earliest applications getting first consideration. A committee of ABC members will judge the entries for acceptance in the show.

I WAS TOO BUSY TO NEED A SAVIOR

FROM the very earliest days I can remember I was always caught in a whirl of activities. In school there were always things to do, then on into college the whirl of social and extra-curricular programs. Then after college into business. The struggle to get ahead combined with making all the contacts that are essential to climbing.

All of my life was one whirl after another, always going, never stopping long enough to think, until one day I had to stop and think about God.

I was living in God's world and I hadn't even taken time to know Him. I was breathing God's air, and I hadn't taken time to thank Him. I was enjoying God's sunshine, and I hadn't even taken time to express my appreciation. But worse than all of these, I was breaking God's law and I had been too busy to recognize my sin until that day when God arrested me and I learned from His Word that He had sent His Son to die for ungrateful, sinful, busy people like me.

I took time that day out of a busy life to take Jesus Christ as my Savior and My Lord, and now I'm busy telling others about Him.

Explanations to POWs Deadlocked; Breakdown of Truce Terms Feared

PANMUNJOM, Wednesday, Oct. 21 (AP)—The Communist High Command, badly beaten in its campaign to woo back 22,400 anti-Red prisoners, last night in effect blamed its failure on the Allies.

The command's note was thrown into a grave situation in which the Swedish member of the Neutral Nations Repatriation commission conceded "anything might happen."

The Communist Pole and Czech delegates were boycotting the commission because it refused to force the prisoners to listen to Red persuaders. Thus the explanation work was stalled indefinitely.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, commission chairman, was huddling with both sides, trying to make peace. The Communists are insisting on talking to balking North Koreans, who threaten a mass break from Panmunjom's compounds if they are forced to listen. (A diplomatic source at the United Nations said the United States had been urged to talk the North Koreans into listening to avert a breakdown of the armistice.)

(The source said the whole armistice was based on an agreement that both sides would have a chance to persuade reluctant prisoners to return. He declared that if the North Koreans cannot be persuaded to listen, the Communists would withdraw from the Repatriation commission permanently and this would blow up the Korean peace conference.)

The note to Gen. John E. Hull, United Nations commander, was signed by Premier Kim Il Sung of North Korea and Gen. Peng Teh-Tuai.

POW Asks Return To United States

PANMUNJOM, Wednesday, Oct. 21 (AP)—An official Indian spokesman today identified the American prisoner of war who has asked for repatriation to the United States as Edward S. Dickenson of Big Stone Gap, Va.

Dickenson was the first of 23 Americans held in the neutral zone under Indian custody to ask for return to the UN command.

The Indian spokesman said the American soldier requested last night that he be sent home.

A committee of the Neutral Nations Repatriation commission "validated" his request this morning and announced Dickenson will be turned over to the UN Command this afternoon.

The validation for the Virginia soldier lasted about 10 minutes. The Indian spokesman said Dickenson was calm throughout the ceremony. He appeared before a board composed of one representative each from India, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland and Sweden.

"Do you wish to be repatriated?" the committee chairman asked Dickenson.

"Yes, I do," Dickenson answered quietly.

"Then we will do everything possible to comply with your wishes," the Indian chairman said.

DULLES EXHORTS REDS TO AGREE ON MEETING

Challenges Moscow to Show Peaceful Intent

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles challenged Moscow tonight to show peaceful intentions by agreeing to a Western proposal for a meeting to discuss unification of divided Germany.

The proposal for such a meeting of foreign ministers at Lugano, Switzerland, Nov. 9, was put into final form and sent to Russia during a session of American, British and French foreign ministers in London. Dulles returned from this session only yesterday.

Dulles pictured Russia's forthcoming decision on this plan as a critical sign of whether Moscow is prepared to deal with the West on concrete terms in an effort to ease world tensions.

In an apparent reference to British Prime Minister Winston Churchill's often-made proposal for a meeting of the heads of State of Great Britain, France, the United States and Russia, Dulles said in an address prepared for the Herald-Tribune forum:

"It is our view that few things would be more dangerous than a meeting which produced illusion of agreement, without the reality of agreement."

"Therefore we (the American, British and French foreign ministers) proposed a meeting of foreign ministers about Germany."

"This will provide an answer to whether the Soviet Government is willing to have a meeting on terms which will provide an actual testing of its intentions in terms sufficiently concrete to be significant."

He Won't Do It Again — Knows It's Wrong Now

WHITING, Ind., Oct. 20 (AP)—A Civil Defense auxiliary fireman, apparently bored by lack of activity, admitted today he turned in 50 false alarms in 10 months, four of them in one night.

"I like to hear the sirens and see the fire trucks run," George Veloch, 40, a steel finisher, told City Judge George Pate, who fined him $25 and gave him a suspended 60-day State penal farm sentence.

"Now that I know it's wrong," Veloch promised, "I won't let it happen again."

'Rough to Live With — Drunk or Sober,' Wife of John Wayne Informs Court

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20 (AP)—John Wayne, the movies' No. 1 box-office star, was a rough man to live with, drunk or sober, his wife told a divorce court today.

The former Esperanza Bauer said she almost shot him by mistake when he came home drunk one morning and entered by smashing the door.

On another occasion he slapped her for putting avocado in a sandwich she said. In Acapulco, Mexico, he berated her for swimming in the ocean with some people she did not know were nude, she said.

Resuming the stand on the second day of the trial of her suit for separate maintenance and Wayne's cross-complaint asking for a divorce, Mrs. Wayne again brought up the name of actress Gail Russell, at whose home she charged her husband once spent a night.

DURING A RECESS today a lawyer representing Miss Russell threatened legal action against Mrs. Wayne, saying his client is

Russia Balks at Delay In Discussion of Trieste Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 20 (AP)—The UN Security Council today agreed to a full airing of the Palestine problem and later into violent Russian opposition to moves to put off discussion of the Trieste issue.

Columbia said Britain, France and the United States were engaged in urgent efforts to settle Trieste's future through diplomatic moves and the council should not interfere.

Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky immediately shot back that "explosions of national passion" in Italy and Yugoslavia over Trieste made council action vital.

The battle over Trieste broke out after the council agreed to discuss Arab and Israeli violations of the Palestine armistice agreements with specific mention of the recent killings at Kibya.

The council voted 9 to 1 in favor of the delay despite Soviet Delegate Andrei Vishinsky's demand for immediate discussion. Lebanon abstained.

The Trieste question lay dormant in the UN for more than four years. Then, when trouble started again, Russia asked that discussion be resumed on appointing a governor for the territory, as provided in the Italian peace treaty.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 20 (AP)—William L. Hutcheson, 79, former head of the giant AFL Carpenters' union and a militant figure in labor's struggle for recognition, died today of a heart ailment.

Hutcheson was head of the carpenters' union for 36 years until he stepped down in January, 1952, in favor of his son, Maurice A. Hutcheson.

The husky labor leader entered Methodist hospital Oct. 15 after complaining of severe pains in the abdomen, and he suffered a heart attack Oct. 15. He had been in a critical condition since.

One of the few major labor leaders espousing the Republican cause, Hutcheson was mentioned as a possible candidate for the Vice-Presidency in 1944, but he cooled toward the party, mostly because of the Taft-Hartley law.

However, he continued as a staunch Republican and took part in one of the major non-labor battles of his career at the National convention at Chicago the past year.

The Republican State convention had instructed the 32-member Indiana delegation to support Sen. Robert T. Taft of Ohio. But Hutcheson and Republican Eugene C. Pulliam refused to be bound by the instructions and supported Dwight D. Eisenhower throughout.

Hutcheson had a stormy labor career and his battles with John L. Lewis of the United Mine workers at times got to the swinging stage. Lewis punched the 215-pound Hutcheson on the jaw during a debate at the 1935 AFL convention and the 6-foot-2 carpenter's chief attempted to return a haymaker, missed and skidded across a table and to the floor. Lewis subsequently withdrew ten unions from the AFL's fold.

Julius La Rosa 'Very Confused Guy' After On-the-Air Firing by Godfrey

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Singer Julius La Rosa struck out on his own today after getting his walking papers from the Arthur Godfrey show in the presence of a nationwide radio and television audience.

Saying he always would be grateful to Godfrey, who plucked him from obscurity two years ago and made him a star, La Rosa nevertheless professed to be "a very confused guy" as a result of his sudden exit from the shows.

Meanwhile, arrangements were being made for La Rosa to appear regularly the next 52 weeks on Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town on CBS television Sunday nights. And La Rosa's newly signed manager said the 23-year-old singer's contract, which was with CBS rather than Godfrey, was being studied with a view to planning personal appearances and other activities.

THE APPARENT family fuss in the Godfrey organization also resulted in the departure of band leader Archie Bleyer from Godfrey's daytime and Wednesday night shows.

Bleyer's contract on the Monday night talent scouts has eight weeks to run.

Neither side spelled out details of the cause of the split, but observers drew the inference that Godfrey was displeased over La Rosa's and Bleyer's outside activities, including the making of phonograph records. La Rosa made the hit disc, "Eh, Compari."

Godfrey makes records for Columbia Records, incorporated, a Columbia Broadcasting System subsidiary, and a number of them have been in the hit category. Although La Rosa is not under contract to Columbia records, he has made several Columbia recordings with Godfrey and others from the Radio-TV cast.

Mobile X-Ray Unit Will Be Available Today at YMCA to Check for TB

Want a tuberculosis checkup? You can get one today, for between 1 p. m. and 8 p. m. Powers mobile X-ray unit will be at the YMCA.

And anybody who wants a TB checkup can get one in ten minutes for 50 cents. No appointment is necessary.

That was the word of Leona Smith, executive secretary of the Pottstown Visiting Nurse association, one of Pottstown's anti-tuberculosis organizations, last night.

"The nominal fee of 50 cents does not cover the cost of the individual check," Miss Smith said. "The actual fee is one dollar, but the remainder will be paid for by the Montgomery County Tuberculosis and Public Health society and the Pottstown Tuberculosis society from funds obtained during the annual Christmas seal sale."

"The chances that you have any trace of tuberculosis are, mightily small," Miss Smith pointed out, "but it is wonderful to know that definitely you have no trace. Unless tuberculosis is checked at the very outset, it is most difficult to eradicate. That is why it is so important to arrest it an early stage."

PARCEL POST DEADLINE NEAR

Packages Should Be Sent Out Soon for Servicemen

Christmas mailing deadlines are fast approaching, it was announced yesterday by J. Alfred Marquet, borough postmaster.

Parcel post for armed service personnel in Korea, Japan and the Pacific islands should be mailed by Nov. 1, he reported, while articles addressed to Europe or to American possessions must be posted before Nov. 15.

"It's particularly important," the postmaster continued, "that an overseas address be correct and easy to read. Servicemen are on the move so much that any additional delay may mean delivery after Christmas."

Marquet advised hand printing the serviceman's full name, rank, serial number, branch of service, organization and the Army or Navy postoffice through which the mail is to be routed.

Other tips from the postmaster were: Print directly on wrapping paper, not on labels, which may fall off when exposed to moisture, and put both the serviceman's address and your return address on a slip inside the package.

Police said Gray then wounded himself in the head three times, but the cartridges were defective and he survived.

SPREAD SPREE —

The other two women in the early trio were:

Mrs. G. Earl Miller, 69 North Washington street, whose bedspread dates back to 1844, five years earlier than the one in yesterday's Mercury.

MRS. LESTER Fryer, Zieglerville, who came into The Mercury office with a bedspread that also dated back to 1844 and was made by the same man who wove the spread that touched off the spread spree—Samuel Gilbert, Trappe.

All three spreads are elegant jobs of hand-loomed, with intricate designs, and bright colors that Time has not faded.

On each spread, the maker wove a big label, with his name, the date it was made, and the name of the person for whom he made it.

Mrs. Istenes said, "I should imagine that the spread was sort of a hope chest piece." As proof of this, she noted that they had been regarded as family heirlooms and were passed along from generation to generation.

Mrs. Istenes also pointed out that the spreads are excellent examples of Pennsylvania Dutch craftsmanship. On hers are the Pennsylvania Dutch "dove of peace," she said, which recently was brought back into prominence by being made the design on dinner plates served at the mammoth birthday party for President Eisenhower in Hershey.

The label on Mrs. Istenes' spread says that it was woven by Michael Weand, "Borough of Pottstown," for Hannah Yohn in 1837.

Hannah Yohn was Mrs. Istenes' maternal great-great-grandmother. Mrs. Istenes also said that the spreads seem to have linen threads as the foundation for the wool design, and that the wool threads probably were made from home-grown wool.

That the "hope chest" nature of the spreads has never been entirely lost was pointed out by Mrs. Miller, who recalled, "Ever since I was small, my mother used to say, 'There's a spread that you will get someday'." Mrs. Miller got it when she was married.

Mrs. Miller's spread has been in the family from the day in 1844 when John Kachel made it for Catherine Moyer.

Mrs. Miller had the spread in use until two years ago.

Extended Dry Spell Really No Joke, But Yarns Fly Anyway

Some pretty good yarns are springing up from the extended dry spell now suffocating the Nation.

One of them (unconfirmed) described a fire company called to pump water into a dry well near Perkiomenville.

Then there was the farmer who raised string beans. He's nearly at the end of his rope. Or did you hear about the stream that has two banks, but no liquid assets. Enough!

The situation has gotten so bad that Gov. John S. Fine last night said the State's small game hunting season may be postponed for the second straight year because of drought, unless sufficient rain falls before the season opens Saturday.

OF COURSE, a heavy rainfall has been predicted before the end of the month, but there's many a forest fire between the prediction and the rain.

Locally, yesterday was another in a series of balmy Indian Summer days, with the temperature reaching 74 degrees, six short of the record on this date.

Today also will be warm and fair, with a high from 74 to 78, and the same for tomorrow.

NAACP Meeting Delayed

A meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, originally scheduled for last night, has been postponed to a date in the near future.

Secretary Henry Dozier said last night that no definite date has yet been decided upon.

National Debt Topic Of Lions' Speaker

"The Government debt is an obligation of the American people and it is their job to help stabilize National economy." Thomas Hughes told Pottstown Lions club members last night.

Hughes is State director of the savings bond division of the U.S. Treasury department. He told the group that savings bonds "represent shares in the greatest country in the world."

The 50 club members at the meeting in the Eagles Home association building saw a color film, "America, the Beautiful," a scenic portrait of different parts of the country.

The club has started a campaign to get local residents to place automobile tags on the front of their cars in a move to advertise Pottstown.

At next week's Halloween parade, club members will hand out pumpkin pies to all children in the parade.

President Edward J. Sweeney presided at the meeting.

SCOUTS PLAN TO REORGANIZE

Plans to reorganize were up for discussion at Pottstown Boy Scout meetings this week.

Many have older Scouts ready to graduate to Explorer units. They have new boys coming into the troops from Cub packs, too.

So they will have to train new leaders to take charge of patrols and, in some cases, reorganize the patrols.

ZION'S REFORMED Troop 5 is one that will reorganize.

The troop now has one large patrol (16 Scouts) led by John C. Johnson, who will soon join the troop's Explorer unit.

Scoutmaster Wesley Nichols said that he will divide the large patrol into two smaller ones.

Scouts from the same general neighborhood will be grouped together in the new units, he explained.

Nichols will start a six-week training program to supply new leaders for the patrols. He said the classes would meet Tuesday nights.

THIS WEEK the troop worked on Second Class requirements.

St. James Lutheran Troop 18 was another that laid plans to reorganize.

Scoutmaster Edward W. Jameson revealed he is losing seven Scouts to the St. James Explorer unit. Among them is the senior patrol leader, David Oliver.

Jameson said he will reorganize the patrols and have members elect new leaders for each one.

The St. James troop charter will run out Nov. 30, and all members joining or staying in the troop will have to be signed up by Nov. 15, Jameson said.

The troop spent part of its meeting on a "fire prevention tour" of the church.

During the tour the Scouts noted where all exits and fire-extinguishers were located, and reviewed safety rules for fire emergencies.

TRINITY REFORMED Troop 6 made final plans for its Halloween party next Monday night.

Each Scout will try to bring a friend or prospective member to the party at the church, Scoutmaster Joseph Bobb said.

Party chairman is Thomas Dickison. Donald Blum will be in charge of refreshments, John Freese, entertainment, and David Gehris, decorations.

Richard Miller, former Troop 6 Scribe, has returned from a stay in California and will rejoin the troop, Scoutmaster Bobb revealed.

First Methodist Troop 4 Scouts worked on advancement.

The banquet will get under way at the William Penn Inn, Gwynedd, at 7 p. m.

E. Doyle Sheasley, District 4 governor, and Webster B. Canning, fair trade chairman, are on the prize committee for the affair.

Fred Peters, Collegeville, is chairman of the association.

Local Legion Post To Award Jackels

Plans to fete the American Legion Junior baseball team were completed at a meeting of George A. Amole Post 47.

The Legionnaires will present jackels to the 15 members of the team at the Old-Timers' banquet Nov. 12 at the Elks home.

Commander Robert C. Weller, presided at Monday's meeting, at which Clarence Renoll reported on the Legion's national convention held in St. Louis the past month.

Renoll told of the greeting extended the convention by Vice President Nixon and reported on the talk by William Early, president of the National Education association. Early urged a greater interest in the schools of the Nation.

Renoll also reported on the Pennsylvania delegation's work in putting up for nomination Arthur J. Connell, who was voted the new National commander.

"We're going to try to help the Scouts get ahead in rank now," Scoutmaster Dan Pettigrew said.

At their meeting at the Legion Scout camp, Fagleyville, they worked on music, firemanship, forestry and photography merit badges.

It's good to have money and the things money can buy, but it's good, too, to check up once in awhile and make sure that you haven't lost the things that money can't buy.—George Horace Lorimer.

You Are Paying for Crime

THE shocking lesson to be learned from Pottstown's present crime wave of burglaries and safe crackings is that the toll of damages is not assessed only against the direct victim.

The indirect victims pay the costs of all these unsolved thefts, whether they come in High street business houses, in industrial plants, or in private homes.

And the indirect victims are all of us!

Crime causes increases in burglary insurance rates. It is a threat to real estate values. It increases the cost of food, clothing, taxes and innumerable other items.

All of us pay!

Pottstown should be shocked by this latest crime wave, in which safe-cracking has resulted at the rate of more than one a week.

In the past five weeks, six burglaries have been discovered in Pottstown, and a seventh one just outside the borough line. Of the seven, three have included attacks on safes.

As a Mercury researcher pointed out in a news story yesterday, if the latest outbreak continues, it would rival the biggest of previous outbreaks, that of the pre-Christmas season of 1929, when major safe-crackings were a one-a-week occurrence.

The past year, there were 32 Pottstown burglaries in four months.

Pottstown should be shocked . . . yes, shocked into action to demand that extraordinary precautions be taken to eliminate recurrences of these terrible crime waves.

Certainly Pottstown cannot station a policeman in every store, in every home, in every plant, to frighten away robbers.

But there is a chance that better and more complete police patrolling of the community might discourage crime, or, perchance, turn up the thugs who are victimizing the borough.

Pottstown is woefully weak in its police protection at the hours when most of these crimes probably were committed. There was a time when only TWO POLICEMEN were on duty between the hours of 4 a.m. and 8 a.m. They had to protect the entire town!

Does this same condition persist?

Why is Pottstown's police strength concentrated in the daylight hours?

Why aren't the skilled policemen, the experienced policemen, the hardened policemen, who now are favored with perpetual day work, switched to meet this emergency?

Why can't the shifts be altered to throw the police strength into the early morning hours, when apparently most needed?

Were the Pottstown police force actuated by pride and enthusiasm, it were likely that the experienced officers themselves would suggest a realignment of strength to meet the threat.

If the Pottstown police department had proper leadership, proper executive ability, there'd be no question of what steps would be taken to break up the crime wave.

There'd be a general overhauling of the working hours. Every cop on the force would be out on the streets, in uniform and out of uniform, determined to collar the crooks who are giving the department a black eye.

The commander-in-chief of an alert police department would rally his forces, disperse them judiciously and stop this threat against us all!

The direct victim of burglaries and safe crackings is shocked into becoming an active participant in the fight against crime.

This was showed by the voluntary start of a reward fund by H. Melvin Gingrich, president of the Melbrooke Textiles, Inc. In an effort to capture the thieves, Mr. Gingrich started off a fund with $25, inviting other victims to join with him to bring the culprits to the bar of justice.

When more of the indirect victims are similarly shocked into action by knowledge that they are being victimized, it will be a bad day for criminals, and a good day for the law-abiding community.

You who pay more for insurance, for food and clothing, must demand that borough hall authorities fight this crime wave now!

Editor, The Mercury, Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by The Mercury where Pottstown's councilmen are airing the public garbage stink. It's about time the borough fathers clamp a lid on the situation, like the collector doesn't clamp lids on cans!

An item says Pottstown could take a tip from Hamburg, Germany, when it came to garbage talk. Hamburg was the hardest hit bomb target of the war. But it has been cleared of all wreckage. In other words, it no longer looks like Hamburg.

And say: A highly successful craps shooter, even though he has no college degree, might be called a bone specialist.

Nitwits Taking Over

To the Editor: Everybody talks about how corny and phony the new popular songs are getting, and I agree.

Popular music began its decline with World War II. Today it's fallen as flat as the records on which it is heard.

The morons around the jukeboxes have just about gotten away from "music" altogether.

They're on a crying jag these days. Not long ago they went wild over a crying crooner; now they're "crying in the chapel."

This sorry state is the result of a noticeable and alarming decline of general intelligence in this country.

The wars have killed off most people of moderate intelligence, leaving the nitwits in the majority, and their power is growing.

Perhaps these workers are the fast guys who leave Doehler's every day with nary a thing on their mind. Maybe they would like to do the job.

My hat's off to the policewoman who does her duty every day at the corner of Beech and Warren streets. Rain or shine she does her job well and should receive an orchid when school is out in June.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

PETER L. came home from school, crying.

"Mother, I'm dumb," he wailed. "I can't get high grades like the other kids."

"They call me 'dumb-head' and 'stupid.' So can't you please help me?"

"I'd like to be smart like other kids and make high grades!"

CASES LIKE Peter torture parents. For every normal Dad or Mother yearns to relieve his child of unnecessary heartache.

Sometimes, unfortunately, children are born with such a low I. Q. that they need to be placed in special schools for retarded youngsters.

But most children have enough I. Q. to make creditable grades. So the difficulty is not lack of brain power, but improper training and poor motivation.

First of all, be sure your child's eyesight and hearing are okay and also see that his general health is up to par.

Then help him at home with some tactful tutoring, as with flash cards.

Go through his reading book and pick out various nouns, verbs and adjectives.

Print each one on a strip of white cardboard. Then start him with two cards. Show him the differences between the two words. Then shuffle the cards and see if he can identify them.

When he knows the two words perfectly, add a third and repeat the process. For variation, you can have him act out the verbs, such as "run," "walk," "laugh," "cry," "jump," etc.

INVITE HIS Daddy to compete with him, but be sure that Daddy doesn't win more than once out of every three or four times, or the child's motivation is reduced.

And don't drill with flash cards more than 5 to 15 minutes at a time.

You can also use such cards for teaching the multiplication tables, as well as addition, subtraction, etc.

In fact, the same set of cards can bear printed reading words on one side and arithmetic combinations such as 5 x 9, on the reverse side.

To stimulate reading further, let the child read comic books aloud to his Mother and Daddy while they do the dishes.

Offer him his choice of reading or washing the dishes. He'll usually select the task of reading. But be very lavish with praise and very careful how you correct his mispronunciation.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

A RETURN TO the notion that a woman is in "a delicate condition" during her pregnancy may at least help lessen the number of defective babies being born.

A delicate condition calls for tender care which affects the future baby, as well as the mother.

It was believed that children who were born defective, inherited this tendency from their parents. However, it is becoming more and more apparent that a misadventure during pregnancy, such as some infection, is often the cause.

Things that can cause damage to the unborn infant are X-rays, syphilis, certain types of parasitic infections, mumps, anesthesia, heart disease and serious accidents. A mother who has an attempted abortion may also so injure her child as to cause a defect at birth.

It would seem that all the unborn babies have the necessary organs for normal life at the start. What organs will be affected depends upon the time the injury to the infant occurs within the mother's womb.

A defect may occur when the mother has German measles. When this disease occurs during the first five to six weeks of pregnancy, cataracts of the eyes may occur in the newborn infant.

If it occurs at nine to ten weeks, the child often may be born deaf. These coincide with the times of differentiation of the parts of the baby within the mother's womb.

For some unknown reason, many infant births occur pre-maturely without any known cause. It seems that a defective child does not have as great a chance of maturing in the mother's womb as a normal child.

The Fuel of The Future

The Fuel of The Future

The Fuel of The Future

Pottstown and Area Dealers for Anthracite Coal - "The Fuel of the Future" - Join in Support of Cleaner Air Week . . .

This week is part of a national air pollution control program to give every community cleaner, purer air through reduction of smoke, ash and industrial fumes and gases.

The fuel supply situation, plus increasing air pollution, plus new, efficient coal burning equipment has now caused many fuel authorities to regard anthracite coal as "THE FUEL OF THE FUTURE."

Even in time of national emergency, anthracite will still be in abundant supply and economically priced. Its high carbon content makes it smokeless and clean. It produces healthful, even heat because of its steady burning quality. New stokers make it completely automatic.

CLEANER AIR WEEK is a 52 - weeks - per - year job with this particular week focusing public attention on the need for control of air pollution from all sources. The anthracite industry will give direct and practical help to the program by providing heating engineering counsel free of charge to any public, commercial or domestic consumers of any kind of fuel.

Much can be done to eliminate air pollution by use of anthracite coal and modernization of home, school and industrial plant heating equipment.

8 PERTINENT POINTS WHY YOU SHOULD USE ANTHRACITE COAL:

1. Anthracite does not smoke or create soot. It is being specified more and more for civic cleanliness by smoke abatement and anti-pollution committees.
2. New equipment provides anthracite users with wholly automatic heating units. These are mechanically fed from sealed storage spaces and are designed to fit the decorative schemes of furnished basements.
3. Automatic equipment will heat the average dwelling at less cost than competitive fuels in 90% of the marketing area; in some areas at savings up to 40%.
4. Anthracite has inherent advantages in terms of safety, health and comfort.
5. Information from various sections upon which statistics are being compiled shows less incidence of fire or explosion in homes heated by anthracite.
6. A research study made several years ago showed less incidence of respiratory illness in anthracite heated homes, especially among children under 16 and adults over 60.
7. Surveys show anthracite to be a "comfortable" fuel because of its constant heat source, as compared to "on and off" intermittent heat sources which tend to create cold air pockets.
8. Anthracite is a dependable source of fuel, with more than 150 years of supply in reserve. It is one of America's most valuable natural resources.

Be Wise! Use Anthracite Coal - The Fuel of the Future!

Japan's Rice Output Lowest in 20 Years

TOKYO, Oct. 20 (P)—Perennially food-short Japan faces its smallest rice crop in 20 years. The Nation's latest official rice yield forecast for 1953 plunged from 290,400,000 bushels to 252,000,000.

Rice output averages about 310,000,000 bushels a year. The yield this year would represent a drop of about 18 percent of that of a normal year.

This year's shortage has been blamed on cold weather, insect ravages and floods.

Rice is the king of Japanese staples. Its supply situation figures heavily in determining the trend of many commodity prices. It is also one of the few items still rationed in post-war Japan.

Texas Flyer Safe After Crash of Light Plane

BLACKWELL, Okla., Oct. 20 (P)—A Texas flyer whose light plane developed engine trouble crash-landed in a dense clump of trees.

A farmer climbed a tree and pulled the dazed pilot, Thomas Dewep of Perryton, from the cockpit. Dewep apparently escaped injury.

Occasional victims of mistaken identity were these members of Pottstown's "East End Rangers" of 1930.

Opponents in Lancaster, Reading and West Reading occasionally confused the "Rangers" with a bigger, older team, the Pottstown "Steamrollers" and the "Rangers" opponents would recruit extra high school and college stars specially for the game.

The "Rangers" went to Reamstown, Lancaster county, with 25 men, ended the game with only 11 men able to play.

Players are (reading left to right in all rows): Front row, Frank "Chink" Axsmith, Frank Bauer, Capt. R. F. "Bud" Smale, Curly Alting, Lester Moyer.

Second row, Manager Pete Grim, J. Alfred Marquet (now postmaster), Herb McElroy, Carl "Red" Swavely, Jake Koons, Elmer Baker and Coach Earl Boninni.

Secretary Benson Cited By State Farm Group

HARRISBURG, Oct. 20 (P)—The Pennsylvania Farmers' association today cited Secretary Ezra Taft Benson for his plans to reorganize the US Agriculture department.

At a meeting here, the association's board of directors said Benson's plan "is a step in the right direction."

Under the Benson proposals all current bureaus of the Agriculture department would be put under four main groups. These would include Federal-State programs, meeting, farm stabilization and agricultural credit.

15 Union Leaders Order Strike Vote

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (P)—Leaders of 15 unions today ordered a strike vote among one million non-operating railroad workers to back up demands for improved fringe benefits.

G. E. Leighty, chairman of a negotiating committee set up by the unions, announced at the same time that the unions have asked the National Mediation board to step into the five-months-old dispute.

He said he expects the mediation service to call a conference of both sides in an effort to head off any walkout.

The non-operating railroad workers are those who do not engage in the actual operation of trains.

The leather really popped at Franklin field yesterday afternoon and the coaches' eyes popped when they saw how well the junior varsity stood up to the Pottstown High first stringers.

A rough and tumble scrimmage was held and the reserves showed that they have intentions of improving their status at the expense of some of the regulars.

Coach Heeb Meyers said the players were hitting much harder than usual and if a win over West Chester is possible next Saturday, it will take that style of play to turn the trick.

Old Timers Hold Banquet Meeting At Borough Hall

The Tri-County Old Timers Booster club will meet again tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Borough Hall to discuss details for their first annual banquet Nov. 12.

Reports on ticket sales will be given at this meeting by members of the different committees. Club chairman, Herbert "Pop" Myers wants all the members of the Old Timers baseball team as well as other men serving on committees to be certain to attend this meeting.

The success or failure of the banquet hinges on the details that are discussed tonight. Only with good attendance can the banquet program be completely arranged.

MYERS HAS ANNOUNCED that several plants have reserved tables at the Eagles Home association where the banquet will be held. Other companies, clubs or groups are welcome to do the same. In that way, persons wishing to attend can sit with friends.

Ira Thomas, Chief Bender and possibly Bobby Shantz will be some of the big names attending.

Chitwood Adds Thomson to List Of Drivers Competing at Hatfield

HATFIELD, Oct. 20—Speedway manager Jole Chitwood continued to sign star drivers today for his AAA big car auto races Sunday afternoon at Hatfield half mile speedway. The latest is Johnny Thomson, of Springfield, Mass.

Thomson, who just recently smashed a speed record of seven years' standing on the Virginia State fair track, Richmond, now ranks as one of the leading dirt track drivers in the land. He currently holds down seventh place in the AAA Eastern dirt track championship.

Until just recently, he occupied fourth spot in the 1953 title chase. Then his campaign was interrupted by two accidents, both of them occurring in races at the Reading fairgrounds. In the first, he was hospitalized for four days after getting his race car on top of him, and in the second for two weeks as a result of crashing through a racetrack guard rail.

Fred Greenly, Pugs To Show in South On Magnolia Circuit

Fred Greenly and a trio of pugs will travel throughout Dixie next week competing in dog shows on the Magnolia circuit.

The Pottstown breeder and trainer is showing his dogs in this circuit for the first time, although in January, 1952, he and his pugs competed in nine shows in the Florida Winter circuit.

Carrying the Greenly colors will be Ch. Allen's Glory of Spring, rated as one of the top five pugs in the country and Greenly's greatest winner. The two-year-old, who answers to the name Plum around the house, will be accompanied by a black pug, Greenly's Pot of Coal, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Webb, of Pittsburgh, and Venesee of Gladwyn, owned by Dr. J. J. Stubbs, of Frederick, Md.

The latter dog is a fawn female import from England, having arrived in this country in April. Greenly will try to pick up some championship points for the owners of these two newcomers to the show world.

THE COMPETITION in the South will be as keen, if not keener than it has been here in the East all Summer. During the current lag in local dog tournaments, the Southern kennel clubs bunch nine shows in a period of two weeks.

Most of the top dogs will be taken South, or brought in from the Midwest and West Coast to test their physiques and manners against a fine crop of Dixie-bred dogs. Greenly will enter his charges in five of the nine shows along the circuit as he can remain in the South only one week. He will leave Pottstown Friday and show his dogs Saturday in Statesville, N. C. Sunday he'll be at Athens, Ga., and then travel to Anderson, S. C., on Monday, and to Spartanburg, S. C., on Tuesday. After a show at Florence, S. C., on Thursday, Greenly will return home.

Plum, the all-time Greenly champ, has been making a habit of winning not only the pug breed but also advancing to the top of the toy group. He turned the best in group trick twice the past week end.

Greenly says: "We'll be gunning for the group wherever we go, but it's going to be a fight even to get through the breed."

OF THE OTHER FOUR highly rated pugs, one will be brought in from Seattle, another from Indiana and two from New York. Plum has defeated all four dogs in competition, but beating them all together is another story.

In addition to an outstanding crop of dogs, the Magnolia circuit will have the top judges in the land. As if the southern marathon isn't enough, Greenly plans to rush off again the Sunday after he returns to show his champion in the Union County Kennel club show at Elizabeth, N. J., Nov. 1.

In 1934 the Detroit Lions, in their first season in the NFL, won seven straight shutouts—a record which still stands.

NATIONAL LEAGUE DOMINATES AP ALL-STAR BASEBALL SQUAD

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Brooklyn's defeated, National league made the team for the seventh time, missing only once since the place Cardinals dominated the 1953 Associated Press major league All-Star team, capturing half of the 10 positions.

Seven of the 16 big league clubs, four in the National, were named to the AP's eighth annual All-Star squad, selected today by 179 members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The National league had seven players to only three for the American.

The Dodgers and Cardinals were the only clubs with more than one representative. Oddly enough, the world champion New York Yankees had only one member on the All-Star team—shortstop Phil Rizzuto.

Other clubs with single representatives include Washington, Cleveland, Milwaukee and the Philadelphia Phillies. Four players are holdovers from the 1952 team. They are pitcher Roberts, outfielder Musial and infielders Rosen and Rizzuto. Musial made the team for the seventh time, missing only once since the place Cardinals dominated the 1953 Associated Press major league All-Star team, capturing half of the 10 positions.

Heavy Weekend Program Hill, Upper Perk Try to Stretch Unbeaten Streaks

The football season glides into its second half this weekend as a crowded local card allows the fans a choice of almost a dozen games on Friday and Saturday.

All the Ches-Mont league teams are in action with local interested focused on West Chester's invasion of Franklin field Saturday afternoon. Of the seven Perk league teams, only Schwenksville is idle.

Hill school, the winningest team in the area, goes after victory No. 5 against PMC Prep. Both teams defeated Williamson Trade by big scores making the game a tossup if comparisons count. The Blues of coach Frank Bissell opened the '52 campaign with a 12-7 win over the Cadeis. This game on Saturday will be the Hill's fourth home appearance in five starts.

Friday night another unbeaten streak will be put on the line and it looks like a safe bet Upper Perkiomen will gain its fourth win. The Indians' opponent is hapless Governor Mifflin, the erstwhile Shilling-ton team that has suffered five straight losses. The game will be played at Albright stadium.

Boyerstown has a tough nut to crack on Friday night at Lower Moreland. The Bears are 3-2 after dropping a close one to Wilson High last Saturday. Lower Moreland tied a plenty-good Jenkintown team, 26-26, last week, and its only loss was to powerful Neshaminy.

COLLEGEVILLE should continue its practice of winning and losing on alternate weekends when it plays at Upper Dublin on Saturday. The Colts have their 'win' week coming up after suffering their third loss to Roversford last Friday. The Dublin boys were nipped by Schwenksville 13-12 two weeks ago.

The comeback team of the Perk league, Roversford will have to continue its improvement if it is to gain win No. 3 against Wilson High. The Eagles will host the team that surprised Boyertown. This game, played at Roversford, shapes up as "tight."

The Wildcats of North Coventry can even their record at 2-2 with a triumph at Wyomissing. The Sunsets, after beating Schwenksville and Upper Dublin, dropped two in a row to Collegeville and Susquehanna. A good offense by Norco could turn the trick. Al Brown's team showed an improved attack in beating Schwenksville, 19-0.

Spring City plays at home against a team that has a similar record, 1-3. Marple Newtown lost a close one, 13-12, to Yeadon last week while the Pirates were being blanked for the third straight week, 20-0, by Nether Providence. A healthier Buc team could give Coach Bud Cleveland his second win.

POTTSTOWN JUNIOR HIGH gets the big weekend of football rolling Friday afternoon when it plays its third home game against Rittenhouse Junior High of Norristown at Franklin field. The Golden Cubs have managed to lose two out of their three games and coach Gene Kauler plans to end one of his longest losing streaks. With fewer miscues, the Cubs should romp over the none-too-strong Rits.

Ursinus, 2-1, travels to play unbeaten Swarthmore on Saturday in a college game that promises to be a close match. The Bears topped Susquehanna in their opener, 32-14. By almost the same point spread, Swarthmore opened with a 27-7 win over Susquehanna.

The Ches-Mont league has its biggest weekend to date. In addition to the Trojan-Warrior game, Bridgeport is at Downingtown and Berwyn at Coatesville, Phoenixville plays at Norristown.

Elks Kne-Hi Banquet The Championship Elks team of the Kne-Hi league will be honored at a banquet at the Elks home to night at 7 o'clock. Jackets will be handed out to the team which has won three titles in four years and retires the first Kne-Hi league trophy.

Team manager Red Borgiet said Buckey Walters, present Boston Braves coach and former Cincinnati manager and pitcher, may attend.

Roberts with most victories, 23. Spahn also led the National league pitchers in earned run percentage.

In all 13 pitchers received recognition. Southpaw Billy Pierce of the White Sox and right hander Bob Porterfield of the Senators were runners-up to Spahn and Roberts, respectively. Pierce had 40 votes to 30 for Porterfield.

Most competition was for the outfield where 24 flycatchers vied for the three positions. Mickey Mantle with 28, Orestes imoso with 28 and Ted Williams with 23 were closest to the first named trio. Williams, returning from Korea in July after nearly two years in service, batted a phenomenal .407 and slammed 13 homers in 37 games for the Boston Red Sox.

ROSEN WALKED off with third base honors, receiving 115 votes to 59 for Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee, the majors' newly crowned home run king. The Cleveland slugger, in line for Most Valuable Player honors, paced the American league in home runs, runs batted in, slugging and lost the batting crown by a fraction of a point.

Roberts, winner of 20 or more games for the fourth consecutive season, drew the most votes of any pitcher. He had 132 to 116 for Spahn, the Braves' Southpaw ace, who tied finance and highway-sewer committee after a lengthy session on the borough dump issue, said, "I see they're taking out the meters on North Franklin street. And now when the traffic plan finally is approved we will be putting the meters back in along Franklin street because it will be a one-way street."

"We spend money taking meters out and then we turn around and put them back in. What kind of management is this?"

"Certainly we'll get no traffic plan under the present leadership. It seems to me something could be done in four years. But I'm beginning to believe now nothing ever will be done by the man who's made so many promises."

Paul Marshall, chairman of the highway-sewer committee, said a traffic plan should be developed.

Paul P. Kohler, Second ward, asked how the man on the tiller of the Empire Hook and Ladder Fire company can see when he goes along North Franklin street.

Weis asserted, "He can't see. His head is buried in the trees." Griffith broke a council deadlock this past September on the no-parking ban on North Franklin street, between Beech and High street.

The ban was passed to relieve the dangerous traffic conditions along the street, created by old trees which grow over the curbing.

Committee members approved an indented sidewalk plan for the new East End shopping center of Charles S. Nagle.

The plan provides for parking adjacent to a receding curb and a sidewalk to the rear of the parking lot.

Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden and Marshall said they would ask E. J. Kinney, Ardmore, district engineer for the State Highway department, whether work on State street, promised by the State, will be completed this fall.

The borough has installed curbing along the street, part of the agreement with the State.

ough limits without the fire chief's permission. "While the ban's on," Lindauer said yesterday, "I won't even give out permission to burn anything over."

While the current drought has not been accompanied by the high temperatures of the late-Summer drought, he said, it has come at a season when growth has stopped and foliage and grass is drying up, anyway.

For that reason, he said, he considered this drought even more hazardous.

The ban will be in effect throughout the borough.

became abusive and unco-operative while the firemen tried to learn how the fire had started.

THE GOOD Will chief intended to press charges against Brooks for interfering with firemen in the performance of their duty.

But at yesterday's hearing, Roth learned from Squire Yerger that no such charge could be lodged.

Yerger explained that a man could be charged only with interfering with an officer while in the process of serving a writ.

There were no provisions made for persons interfering with firemen putting out a fire.

But Chief Roth said last night, "We're going to get together and ask the borough to put it in the fire code. We know that such a provision exists in the State law and we're going to ask that it be incorporated into borough law so that others will know what the score is from now on."

The fire code, passed after a year's work in June of 1950, was described at the time by top fire underwriter officials as "one of the best fire codes in the State."

Numerous other communities in the State have since passed similar codes.

The Mercury was awarded the Gold Medal of the National Association of Fire Underwriters in 1950 for the vigorous campaign and work expended in behalf of the code.

CARE OF WALL TO WALL CARPETING

To maintain the new appearance of carpeting, experience proves that spots should be removed as they appear rather than doing an overall cleaning job once or twice each year.

There is available a foam cleaner that does not leave rings when removing spots since it contains no naphtha or solvents. The use of this foam when spots appear, preserves the new appearance and life of carpeting. This cleaner known as Pina Foam may be purchased at Block's, High and Charlotte Sts. Pottstown, Phone 3010 pump, and added, "It wasn't much good when I got it and you can't make it work now."

Gulden told council this past Oct. 12 he had the pump repaired, but it was no longer of any use to battle dump fires.

Borough Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer led a delegation of nine firemen from the borough's four companies.

He testified, "We have the firemen here tonight to find out why there have been so many fires on the dump. All four fire companies are represented, and the men here represent between 4000 and 5000 firemen in the four companies."

"We feel the dump hasn't been properly maintained. We're not quitting. But we feel there wouldn't be so much trouble if the dump were properly maintained."

"Another thing, we would like to know why the garbage collector can't take paper. We've made a survey and find out the waste paper from the average home is more than 16 pounds per week."

"There's more than 100 pounds of old paper stored in attics and vacant rooms in the borough. If this menace isn't disposed of we're liable to have a number of serious fires in the borough."

The chief continued, "When the fellows do go down there we don't like some of the remarks that are passed around. In fighting dump fires in recent months firemen have spent 321 man hours.

Paul P. Kohler, Second ward, of health and sanitation committee, asked, "What are the firemen's views on this problem. After all the firemen are the only real authorities on fire in the borough and I believe we can benefit by your experience."

Lindauer said, "First, I don't think the dump is properly maintained. There's a man down there to watch the dump who at times isn't capable of telling what's going on."

J. Wayne Knause, Seventh ward, chairman of finance committee, said to the chief, "Dick, I think you have the right to go down there and tell him (Woodley) to remove a fire menace just as you would come out to my house or any other private home and direct us to remove a menace."

Lindauer said he wanted to be sure of the tieup between Woodley and the borough. President Henry Schroyer of the Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company asked Gulden to read the contract between the borough and Woodley.

After Gulden read the portion of the contract which applies to maintenance of the dump, Schroyer asked, "Has he (Woodley) lived up to the contract?"

"Generally he has," Gulden said.

Engineer Charles Hartman of the Philadelphia company quickly analyzed the confusion. He asserted, "I think first of all the fault lies with the borough for not providing the equipment. I feel no man wants to go down there and sink up to his neck in garbage and have the roaches crawl all over him."

"But we as firemen have no growl with this man, (Woodley) when the borough is responsible for providing the equipment and hasn't complied with its end of the bargain. Our first growl is with the borough."

RALPH L. Weis, chairman of fire committee, snapped, "Anything been done about securing a pump since council meeting?"

Gulden said, "You know how I operate around this community. As economically as I can for the community good. There are thousands of dumps all over the country and a good many of them burn all the time. If you want to spend the money I can get the pump."

Knause suggested, "Suppose we hear from Mr. Woodley."

Woodley asserted, "I didn't come here to talk. I didn't call the meeting. I came here to listen to a plan to stop the fires down there."

Woodley said, "That's up to the borough manager."

A member of the fire delegation asserted, "That's all taken care of in the contract. If you read the contract it says all the borough has to do is provide the equipment and that the responsibility from then on is up to Woodley."

EDWARD H. Hunnicutt, Eighth ward, asked Lindauer, "Would it be possible to wet down the dump at regular periods during the Summer as part of a fire-prevention program?"

The chief explained, "It might be a good idea to do that around the edges of the dump."

Kohler said, "I think Mr. Hunnicutt has brought up a good point. Firemen can give us advice and suggestions on this problem."

Lindauer reiterated, "I say again the man on the dump can do much to prevent fires."

Chief Richard Moser of the Empire Hook and Ladder Fire company asked Woodley why he laughed at Chief Robert Roth of the Good Will Fire company, when Roth made a suggestion to Woodley during a recent fire.

Woodley snapped, "I laughed at him because the firemen won't walk with their hoses over the garbage for fear they will sink in the stuff and he wanted me to take my bulldozer out there."

The garbage collector continued, "Every time I called for the fire companies I only asked for a pumper and driver."

Roth said, "Our fire companies don't operate that way."

Burgess William A. Griffith asked dissenting members not to fight and then explained, "They say the smoke down there from these fires is harmless. But suppose some kind of poison gas was produced."

"You know there are a lot of chemicals there in the dump. Suppose someone would die from exposure in the smoke."

"You know we've been pretty lucky on this so far. I'm afraid sure they will be available in case the Pollock company will withdraw their offer to allow as to continue dumping there if something isn't done. I believe the dump's too deep."

"I think something should be done on the health side."

Kohler asserted, "We've fixed the responsibility. The borough has to provide the pump and hose. Now we must see the suggestions are carried out so there are less fires down there."

Knause said, "It's going to fall on the borough to purchase the proper equipment and from then on it will be up to Woodley. The firemen won't be needed every time there's a little trouble. But I'm sure they will be available in case of any emergency."

Olson Still 11 to 5 Choice to Defeat Turpin for Middleweight Championship

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Carl (Boho) Olson, a busy ring mechanic from Hawaii and San Francisco, today remained a solid 11 to 5 choice over Britain's unpredictable Randy Turpin in tomorrow's 15-round bout for the world middleweight championship.

The two capable contenders will meet for the crown, vacated last year by Sugar Ray Robinson, at 10 p. m. Pottstown time at Madison Square Garden. The nation will watch and listen on CBS radio and television although New York and a 75-mile area will be blacked out of the TV picture.

Turpin's sporadic training methods at Grossinger, N. Y. confused writers, managers, trainers and some of his own camp followers. The eager youngster who frequently sparred 15 rounds gave way to a moody fellow who boxed only five times in three weeks. The pick here is Olson.

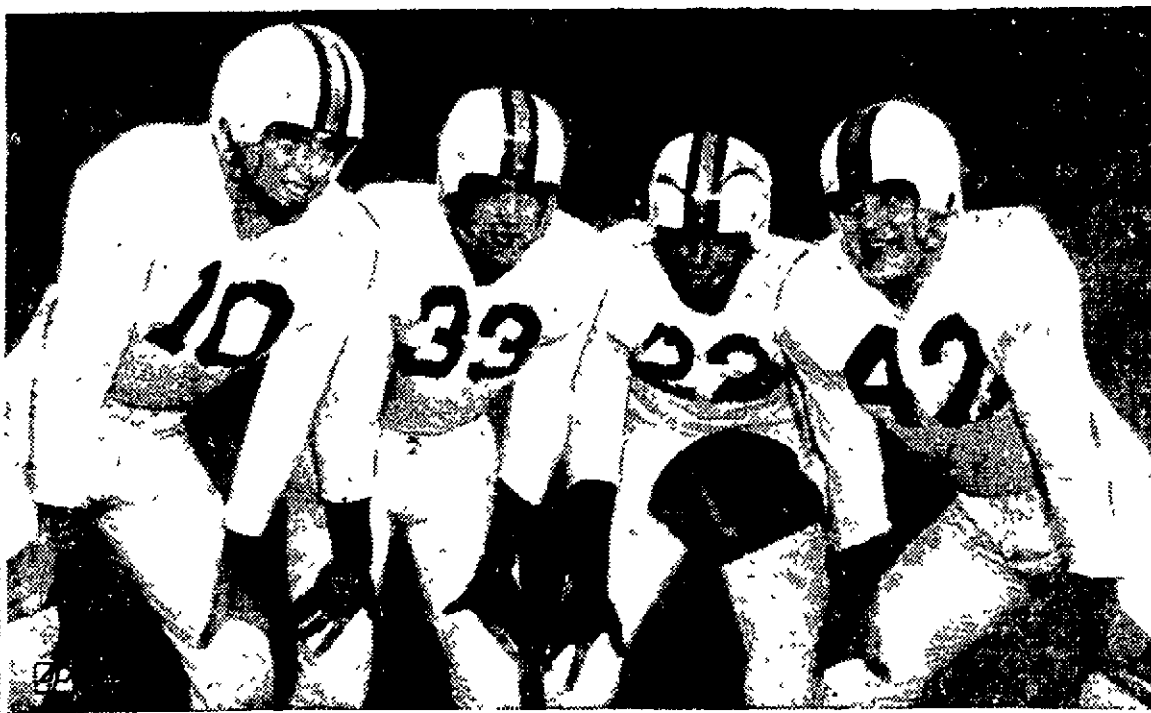

Although the fight lacks the tremendous appeal of Turpin's first visit to America, two months after he had upset the mighty Robinson, it should come close to packing the Garden. More than 60,000 paid about $767,000 to see Turpin in 1951.

at the Polo Grounds. This time he'll probably draw 17,000 and about $175,000. Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing club, said the advance sale was "in excess of $110,000."

Because of Turpin's strange workouts, there is unusual interest in the weigh-in, scheduled for noon in the Garden lobby. When Dr. Vincent Nardiello of the New York State Athletic Commission put Randy on the scales last Thursday, it was reliably reported he weighed 161. George Middleton, the grocer who managed the ex-champ, insists he will have no trouble making the 160-pound class limit.

Turpin had to sweat off eight ounces in a steam bath to make 160 June 9 when he fought France's Charles Humez for European title recognition.

Olson never had trouble making the limit although he did scale 165 last March for a bout with Garth Panter. When he beat Paddy Young in the Garden, June 19 for the American championship he weighed 159½. Sid Flaherty, his manager, said the fighter will be at 159 for Turpin. He weighed 161 pounds today at Asbury Park, N. J.

Wee Willie Ends Slump, Wins 2

ALBANY, Calif., Oct. 20 (AP)—Wee Willie Shoemaker snapped his 16-race "slump" today with winners 393 and 394 at Golden Gate Fields. "The Shoe," who set a world record of 392 Friday, brought in Secco and Daily Record today.

Witch-English, owned by the Noble Enterprises, Inc., at San Mateo, took the featured Sonoma County handicap by a length and a half after powering past the favored Aegean in the stretch.

Fuzzhead, the early pacesetter, held on for third in the field of six for the three-quarter mile sprint.

A crowd of 7912 watched Witch-English come from behind on the extreme outside entering the stretch to catch Aegean at the 70-yard pole and quickly draw ahead.

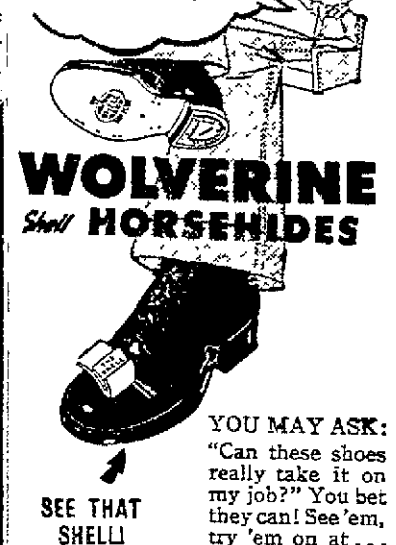

Cats Shift Addiego To Quarterback Post

VILLANOVA, Oct. 20 (AP)—Ben Addiego, Villanova's fleetfooted halfback, may have a different assignment when his team clashes with the Kentucky eleven at Lexington Saturday night.

Villanova coach Art Raimo disclosed at today's practice session he is playing with the idea of shifting Addiego to quarterback against Kentucky.

Raimo pointed out that Addiego is a quick thinker, moves fast and is a deadly passer.

RANDY TURPIN BOBO OLSON
ONE WILL BE A CHAMP—Vacated in December of 1952 when Sugar Ray Robinson gave up 160-pound title, boxing's middleweight championship will be filled again tonight when Randy Turpin of Britain meets Carl (Boho) Olson of Hawaii in New York's Madison Square Garden. The fight will be televised nationally, except in the New York Areas.

PORTERFIELD, HADDIX '53 SHUTOUT KINGS

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Washington's Bob Porterfield, a hard-luck hurler for most of his big league career, and rookie southpaw Harvey Haddix, in his first full season with the St. Louis Cardinals, were the 1953 shutout kings of the majors.

Figures compiled by the Associated Press today showed Porterfield topped the American league with nine shutouts. Haddix set the pace in the National league with six.

For Porterfield, the 1953 season was a complete reversal of form over his showing of a year ago. In 1952 the 29-year-old right-hander was on the losing end of seven shutouts, including three by 1-0 scores, and his won-lost record was 13-14.

While registering a 22-10 won-lost mark this year, Porterfield blanked Philadelphia three times, Chicago twice, and New York, St. Louis, Cleveland and Boston once each. Over one stretch he pitched three shutouts in a row and held the opposition scoreless for 29 consecutive innings. Two of his shutouts were one-hit games.

HADDIX JOINED the Cards at the end of the 1952 season after serving a two-year hitch in the Army. Dubbed "The Kitten" because of the resemblance in his pitching mannerisms to former teammate Harry "The Cat" Brecheen, he appeared in seven games, winning two and losing two.

The 28-year-old lefty started off the '53 season impressively by whitewashing the Cubs in his first start and he added five more along the way. Haddix ended up with 20 victories and nine defeats and his shutouts were achieved against Chicago and Cincinnati, twice each, and New York and Philadelphia, once each.

Runner-up to Porterfield in the American league listings was Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox with seven shutouts.

Then came Boston's Mel Parnell, Chicago's Virgil Trucks and Cleveland's Bob Lemon with five apiece.

Warren Spahn of Milwaukee and Robin Roberts of Philadelphia ranked behind Haddix in the National league shutout derby with five each. Philadelphia's Curt Simmons and Brooklyn's Carl Erskine were next in line with four each.

A year ago Mike Garcia of the Indians and Alie Reynolds of the Yankees were the leaders in the American loop with six each. The Senior circuit pace-setters were Simmons and Cincinnati's Ken Raffensberger, also with six apiece.

A year ago Billy Martin of the Yankees hit .217 in the World Series. In the 1953 classic he was the big hero with a 500 batting average—12 hits in 24 trips.

Middies Zoom To No. 1 Scoring Team in Nation

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Navy's 65-7 outburst against Princeton Saturday shot the Midshipmen to first place among the nation's major college football teams in scoring, to second in total offense and third in rushing, figures of the NCAA Service bureau showed today.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz's Middies, rolling up the highest score of the season in a game between major teams, raised their four-game averages to 38 points, 392.5 total yards and 275.5 yards on the ground.

Navy trails Utah's 401.2 in total offense, and Illinois' 322 and Kansas State's 279 in rushing.

The figures show there is an unprecedented house-cleaning taking place among statistical leaders. Among the 10 top teams in total offense, rushing and passing, and the top five in scoring, there are only three repeaters from 1952.

THEY ARE MARYLAND, sixth in total offense and tied for tenth last year; West Virginia, fourth in rushing and eighth a year ago; and Fordham, passing leader last year and last week, and now sixth.

College of Pacific took over the No. 1 passing spot, with a five game average of 179 yards gaining 200 yards while losing to Texas Tech. Northwestern is second with 173.5 Utah is the most accurate passing team. The Utes have hit with 56 of 96 attempts for 58.3 percent, although ranked ninth in yardage.

Utah moved into the total offense lead with its second straight 400-plus performance in yardage, bagging 417 against Denver after making 442 against Utah State. Utah, unbeaten in five games, is second to Navy in scoring, with 33.8 points a game and first in total points scored with 169 to Maryland's 158 and Navy's 152.

Spartans Improve

Midwest, South Dominate AP Poll Ratings; Irish 1st

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—The Midwest vs South football rivalry, which has grown to considerable proportions this season, reaches a showdown stage Saturday when the nation's top-ranked college team, Notre Dame, encounters fourth-ranked Georgia Tech.

Those two sections dominate the Associated Press ranking poll for the fourth week of the 1953 season with Notre Dame clinging to a dwindling lead.

The top ten, chosen by the ballots of sports writers and broadcasters, includes four midwestern teams — Notre Dame, Michigan State, Michigan and Illinois; three from the South—Maryland, Georgia Tech and West Virginia; two from the Southwest — Baylor and Oklahoma; and a lone Eastern team—Navy.

For the most part, they're staying right in their own sectors for this weekend's games. That leaves it up to Notre Dame's Irish, who have topped the rankings since the start of the season, and Tech's Engineers, who have crept up to fourth place, to settle the inter-sectional argument.

Although Notre Dame came from behind to whip Pittsburgh last Saturday for its third straight victory, that performance evidently impressed the experts less than the scoring feats of the next three teams on the list. The Irish polled only 57 out of 134 first place votes—as compared to last week's 74—and 1153 points this week.

MICHIGAN STATE, another come-from-behind team, did it for the 12th time in a 28-game winning streak to beat Indiana, 47-18; Maryland romped over North Carolina, 26-0, for its fifth victory of the season, and slow-starting Georgia Tech hit a 36-6 scoring peak against Auburn to run its non-losing streak to 31 straight.

As a result, Michigan State drew 31 first place votes and 1107 points; Maryland 27 and 1004 and Georgia Tech 3 and 769.

Two new teams climbed into the first ten, displacing a pair of one-point losers. Oklahoma took ninth place after a 45-0 rout of Kansas and Navy's 65-7 shellacking of Princeton gave the Midshipmen tenth.

UCLA, loser to Stanford 21-20, dropped from fourth place to 12th in the rankings and Duke, beaten 14-13 by Army, fell from seventh to a tie with Kentucky for 16th.

This week Michigan State plays Purdue; Maryland meets Miami on Friday night; Michigan visits Minnesota; Baylor takes on 15-ranked Texas A. and M.; Illinois plays Syracuse; West Virginia, the Southern conference leader, meets VMI; Oklahoma plays Colorado and Navy plays Pennsylvania.

The top ten (first place votes in parentheses):
1. Notre Dame (57) 1153
2. Michigan State (31) 1107
3. Maryland (27) 1004
4. Georgia Tech (3) 769
5. Michigan 683
6. Baylor (1) 623
7. Illinois (1) 521
8. West Virginia (12) 299

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

RECOMMENDED is A. Gayle Waldrop's story of a religious sect called the Doukhobours. Many years ago they emigrated from Russia to escape the tyranny of the Czars, and found freedom to worship in Canada. Unfortunately perhaps, the Doukhobours give homage to the Lord in a state of Eden-like nakedness. Not so long ago, a Doukhobour appeared in a town market place and proceeded to divest himself of his clothing. An outraged constable arrived, the all-but-nude Doukhobour fled and soon outdistanced the arm of the law. The latter, to run faster, discarded shirt, shoes, and trousers. And at last he collapsed the tired Doukhobour... Alas, when the two reentered the market place none could tell which was the Doukhobour and which was the constable!

LITTLE GIRL MATCHES CAUSE $200 FIRE HERE

Curtains, Blinds Flare At Home on South Hills Boulevard

A little girl's playing with matches resulted in a $200 fire yesterday afternoon in a South Hills boulevard home.

Firemen from the Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company and the Empire Hook and Ladder company answered the call, which was received at 4:25 p. m. No one was injured in the fire, they reported.

The fire was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Carolla, 967 South Hills boulevard, Mrs. Carolla said she didn't know how her seven-year-old daughter came to be playing with the matches.

"The first I knew there was a fire was when my daughter called, 'Mommie, there's a fire,'" she said.

"I didn't know where she meant, but when I went into the next room, the curtains were in flames," Mrs. Carolla continued.

"The curtains, venetian blinds, paint around the woodwork and part of the floor all were burned in the second story bedroom and smoke damage also was caused."

Robert Roth, Good Will company fire chief, supervised operations at the fire.

Harry E. Yergy drove a Hook and Ladder truck and James Orr drove a pumper of the same company. George Mauger drove a pumper belonging to the Philadelphia company.

A Hook and Ladder smoke-ejector (high-powered fan) cleared smoke while the stream from a booster line was used to extinguish the flames.

Physician, Nurse, Dietitian Participate in PTA Session

Glimpses of the duties of a school physician were given by Dr. Raymond Reinbold at the Franklin PTA meeting. Theme of the program was "The Family studies the student health problem." Dr. Reinbold explained to the parents exactly what is entailed in the physical examination for the first, third and fifth grade children. He added that 85 to 90 percent of the defects were corrected between the examinations.

In his discussion of the policy regarding exclusion from school he indicated that the re-admission ruling necessitating a note from the school doctor after a three days' absence is for the protection of both the

Coming Events Planned By Junior Auxiliary

Junior auxiliary board members and committee chairmen of the Pottstown hospital met with president, Mrs. Joseph Placido, to appoint new committee members.

Final arrangements were also made for the Harvest Moon dance, Friday night at the Elks' home.

Plans were discussed for an installation dinner, Nov. 2, at Lakeside Inn.

Present at the meeting were: Ellen Guest, Mrs. Eugene Kauler, Rae Calvino, Velma Leightcap, Mrs. Gerald Rhoads, Mrs. Robert Kirby, Pauline Smith, Mrs. John Basco, Mrs. Albert Comino, Mrs. Earl Case, Mrs. Lowell Kratz, Mrs. Galen Royer, Mrs. Jacob Bickel, Mrs. Charles Bast, Helen child and the other school children.

He reminded the group of isolation rulings in connection with communicable diseases and closed his talk with an explanation of the annual sanitary inspection of the school's lighting, heating and ventilation systems.

Mrs. Ethel McConnell, school nurse, explained how her work coordinated with that of the school doctor and dentist in making arrangements for and assisting with physical examinations and dental clinics.

She noted that teachers very often render first aid and then contact the school nurse. But she reminded the parents that no child is ever sent home alone, but remains under supervision until parental contact is made.

Mrs. Joseph Weikel, school dietitian, told the group that at junior and senior high school a child may be assured of a well balanced noon meal whether he desires a dinner or only soup and sandwich.

She said that those children in the habit of well balanced meals at home often select the same at school. Because cafeterias are state subsidized they are able to serve their meals at a nominal fee. All meals, of course, must meet state regulations.

The meeting was conducted by the first vice president of the organization, Mrs. Paul Gross, in the absence of Mrs. William Hurter, who is attending the PTA convention in Philadelphia.

Two New Members Invested Into Brownies At Session Hostessed by Maryann Istenes

Patty Plowfield and Muriel Kurtz were invested into Brownie Troop 7, Emmanuel Lutheran church, at their meeting yesterday.

Maryann Istenes was hostess for the gathering.

Patty Hackman and Corrine Bechtel were color bearers, while Sue Mosheim and Susan Drumheller were the color guards.

Sharon Reinbold and Gail Baudot were the door guards.

Mennonite Churches Retain Pastor

The Rev. Paul E. Baer was re-elected to the pastorate of Twin-Borough Mennonite Brethren in Christ churches for the eighth year at the recent 70th annual conference in Bethel church, Allentown.

R. Stanley Weidner was the local delegate who presented request for the return of Pastor Baer.

A new district superintendent for the Allentown district also was elected during the conference. He is the Rev. F. B. Hertzog, who until recently was pastor of the Quakertown congregation.

The Rev. P. T. Stengele, former district superintendent, was stationed to the Reading charge. It was reported members of the local churches gave nearly $5000 for the missionary cause.

ON SUNDAY the Twin-Borough members gave Pastor Baer their greetings on his return for the eighth year and in celebration of his 25th wedding anniversary.

During the day they handed him envelopes with greeting cards enclosed and cash contributions totaling more than $600. Pastor Baer took them to a hospital in Philadelphia, where Mrs. Baer, who is recuperating from two severe operations, opened and noted the contents. Tears of appreciation were shed by both the pastor and his wife.

At recent local elections, Howard C. Greenwald took the place of E. R. Hartman as treasurer of the board of trustees at Royersford, and Isaac Shenk supplanted Calvin Fox as secretary of the board of trustees at Spring City. Mrs. Bernard Gregoire was elected steward at Spring City in place of Mrs. Richard I. Erb, who was transferred to the Royersford church by her own request.

Two Pupils Injured In Separate Mishaps At Royersford High

A Royersford High school girl hockeyist and an Eighth grade boy were injured in separate accidents at the school yesterday afternoon.

Margaret Garber, 925 Walnut street, was struck in the left eye by a hockey ball during gym practice. The impact shattered her glasses and fragments entered her eye. She was treated by Dr. J. J. Maron, who removed the glass particles and the girl was apparently fully recovered.

After school, while the High school gridders were practicing, Robert Zollinhofer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Zollinhofer, Fifth avenue and Washington street, suffered a fracture of the left ankle while at play with other boys. The lad, not a member of the team, was hurt when he reportedly was tackled by another youth. He was taken to Memorial hospital, Pottstown, in Friendship Community ambulance.

The amplifying system is being enlarged. This system is a memorial to Mrs. Margaret Halde-man.

A new bulletin board will be presented by a class of the Sunday school.

The past Sunday, a mother's class was organized in the Sunday school.

35,000 Pencils, Old Firearms Among Collections to Go on Exhibit Here

If all you do with your spare time is doodle or sit back in your easy chair and twiddle your thumbs, you'll soon get a chance to see what some more energetic area residents accomplish in their extra hours.

To say that the sight will be an eye-opener would be like calling Niagara Falls a trickle of water.

Here's what one hobbyist will exhibit: A collection of 35,000 pencils, gathered from every nook and cranny of the world.

Another will show miniature Mummies' parade string bands.

A third will present his collection of old firearms. These ancient muzzle loaders, far from being rusty blunderbusses, are kept in tip-top condition and are used by the hobbyist on his present-day hunting trips.

OTHERS will show miniature oil lamps, a ceramic collection, a collection of old steins; collections of arrowheads, buttons, dolls, old newspapers, copper embossed pictures, stamps and candles.

Together with this, there'll be at least five antique autos, shown by three exhibitors.

That's a rundown of the exhibits Joe L. Bowen received up to last night for the American Business club's hobby show scheduled for Nov. 20 and 21.

Bowen, general chairman of the show, emphasized that the applications thus far have come to him on word-of-mouth information only.

A total of 150 entries will be accepted for the show with the earliest applications getting first consideration. A committee of ABC members will judge the entries for acceptance in the show.

THE CHARITY event, which the Pottstown ABC chapter plans as an annual affair, will be held in the armory on King street. In forwarding permission to use the armory, the adjutant general of the United States lauded the work as a worthwhile project.

Proceeds will go to an area cerebral palsy clinic. It is part of the national and local ABC drive for funds for this purpose.

Bowen stressed that the exhibits won't all hark back to

The Pottstown Amateur Radio club will present an exhibit and will also transmit, free of charge, messages to servicemen all over the US and the rest of the world.

The ABC club also anticipates an exhibit of the continuous hatching of live chicks. If you attend, you stand a chance of taking the chicks home with you. They'll be given to visitors.

The theme of the show is "Share Your Hobby to Help Someone Walk." The general chairman said the club is particularly interested in getting local hobbyists to enter their coins and model trains.

There will be 12 general classifications, divided between the handicraft hobbyists and the collectors.

The 12 classifications are albums and scrapbooks, coins, miscellaneous collections, natural history, relics and antiques, stamps and covers, art, craft and handiwork, models, including airplanes, autos, buildings, firearms, ships and trains, needlecraft, photography and radio.

I WAS TOO BUSY TO NEED A SAVIOR

FROM the very earliest days I can remember I was always caught in a whirl of activities. In school there were always things to do, then on into college the whirl of social and extra-curricular programs. Then after college into business. The struggle to get ahead combined with making all the contacts that are essential to climbing.

All of my life was one whirl after another, always going, never stopping long enough to think, until one day I had to stop and think about God.

I was living in God's world and I hadn't even taken time to know Him. I was breathing God's air, and I hadn't taken time to thank Him. I was enjoying God's sunshine, and I hadn't even taken time to express my appreciation. But worse than all of these, I was breaking God's law and I had been too busy to recognize my sin until that day when God arrested me and I learned from His Word that He had sent His Son to die for ungrateful, sinful, busy people like me.

I took time that day out of a busy life to take Jesus Christ as my Savior and My Lord, and now I'm busy telling others about Him.

Mobile X-Ray Unit Will Be Available Today at YMCA to Check for TB

Want a tuberculosis checkup? You can get one today, for between 1 p. m. and 8 p. m. Powers mobile X-ray unit will be at the YMCA.

And anybody who wants a TB checkup can get one in ten minutes for 50 cents. No appointment is necessary.

That was the word of Leona Smith, executive secretary of the Pottstown Visiting Nurse association, one of Pottstown's anti-tuberculosis organizations, last night.

"The nominal fee of 50 cents does not cover the cost of the individual check," Miss Smith said. "The actual fee is one dollar, but the remainder will be paid for by the Montgomery County Tuberculosis and Public Health society and the Pottstown Tuberculosis society from funds obtained during the annual Christmas seal sale."

TODAY'S appearance of the mobile X-ray unit will be the first of three scheduled for Pottstown. Tomorrow the unit will pay its annual visit to Pottstown Junior High school, and on Monday it will locate at The Hill school.

In 1952, 1423 examinations were made by the unit during its visit to Pottstown. At the Junior High school 497 persons were tested, at The Hill 466 tests were made, and at the community X-ray at the YMCA 460 persons were checked. Of these 460, not one active case of tuberculosis was detected but 26 latent X-rays showed irregularities of one sort or another, chiefly heart murmurs.

Tests in recent years have shown that more and more "older" persons are showing symptoms of tuberculosis than formerly, Miss Smith said. "Formerly it was believed that anybody past 35 years of age was more or less immune from tuberculosis but recently this has proved to be a false premise. That is why it is so important that persons of all ages submit regularly to tuberculosis X-ray examinations."

"The chances that you have any trace of tuberculosis are mighty small," Miss Smith pointed out, "but it is wonderful to know that definitely you have no trace. Unless tuberculosis is checked at the very outset, it is most difficult to eradicate. That is why it is so important to arrest it an early stage."

Daughter of Treasurer Substitutes as Speaker

CHICAGO, Oct. 20 (P)—Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the United States, was unable to address the National Safety Congress but supplied a pinch speaker — her 17-year-old daughter, Patricia.

Spokesmen said Mrs. Priest could not appear because of illness. Patricia said a lady should "try at least as hard to make her home safe as she does to play a good game of bridge or bake a good batch of biscuits."

PARCEL POST DEADLINE NEAR

Packages Should Be Sent Out Soon for Servicemen

Christmas mailing deadlines are fast approaching, it was announced yesterday by J. Alfred Marquet, borough postmaster.

Parcel post for armed service personnel in Korea, Japan and the Pacific islands should be mailed by Nov. 1, he reported, while articles addressed to Europe or to American possessions must be posted before Nov. 15.

"It's particularly important," the postmaster continued, "that an overseas address be correct and easy to read. Servicemen are on the move so much that any additional delay may mean delivery after Christmas."

Marquet advised hand-printing the serviceman's full name, rank, serial number, branch of service, organization and the Army or Navy postoffice through which the mail is to be routed.

Other tips from the postmaster were: Print directly on wrapping paper, not on labels, which may fall off when exposed to moisture, and put both the serviceman's address and your return address on a slip inside the package.

Local Bank Workers Will Attend Dinner

More than 75 bank officials and employees from Pottstown will attend the annual meeting of Montgomery County Bankers association tonight at Glenside.

The dinner-dance meeting, annual Fall get-together for bank employees, will be held at the Casaconti lodge.

In all, more than 490 reservations for the event had been received by yesterday, according to Frederick G. Erb, president of Citizens National bank and chairman of the committee in charge of the affair.

Others on the committee are Allen Glenn Jr., C. Rush Barr Jr., Allen Resendoph and Fred Herbsleb.

The Rev. Eugene B. Umberger, pastor of Transfiguration Lutheran church, will deliver the invocation at the event, which will start at 6:30 p. m. and Walter Heller, president of the association, will make the opening remarks.

Main speaker will be the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, pastor of Christ church, Philadelphia.

Farm Employee Injured

There was inadvertent confusion between two North Coventry dairy farms in a news story in yesterday's Mercury about the hand amputation suffered by Stager Lloyd, Elverson RD 1.

Lloyd is an employee of Meadow Brook Dairy farms, Kenilworth, where the accident happened. He has been listed as working for Laurel Lock farms. There was no accident at Laurel Locks.

Lloyd lost his left hand when it was caught in a corn-picking machine, a spokesman for Meadow Brook reported.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20 (P)—An Allegheny county grand jury indicted Edward V. Gray, 57, today on a murder charge in the "mercy shooting" of his sister July 13.

Gray told police he shot his sister, Elizabeth, 46, at her home in Pittsburgh's Allentown district after she came home intoxicated and asked him to shoot her. Police said Gray then wounded himself in the head three times, but the cartridges were defective and he survived.

Explanations to POWs Deadlocked; Breakdown of Truce Terms Feared

PANMUNJOM, Wednesday, Oct. 21 (AP)—The Communist High Command, badly beaten in its campaign to woo back 22,400 anti-Red prisoners, last night in effect blamed its failure on the Allies.

The command's note was thrown into a grave situation in which the Swedish member of the Neutral Nations Repatriation commission conceded "anything might happen."

The Communist Pole and Czech delegates were boycotting the commission because it refused to force the prisoners to listen to Red persuaders. Thus the explanation work was stalled indefinitely.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, commission chairman, was huddling with both sides, trying to make peace. The Communists are insisting on talking to balking North Koreans, who threaten a mass break from Panmunjom's compounds if they are forced to listen.

(A diplomatic source at the United Nations said the United States had been urged to talk the North Koreans into listening to avert a breakdown of the armistice.)

(The source said the whole armistice was based on an agreement that both sides would have a chance to persuade reluctant prisoners to return. He declared that if the North Koreans cannot be persuaded to listen, the Communists would withdraw from the Repatriation commission permanently and this would blow up the Korean peace conference.)

The note to Gen. John E. Hull, United Nations commander, was signed by Premier Kim Il Sung of North Korea and Gen. Peng Teh-Tuai.

POW Asks Return To United States

PANMUNJOM, Wednesday, Oct. 21 (AP)—An official Indian spokesman today identified the American prisoner of war who has asked for repatriation to the United States as Edward S. Dickenson of Big Stone Gap, Va.

Dickenson was the first of 23 Americans held in the neutral zone under Indian custody to ask for return to the UN command.

The Indian spokesman said the American soldier requested last night that he be sent home.

A committee of the Neutral Nations Repatriation commission "validated" his request this morning and announced Dickenson will be turned over to the UN Command this afternoon.

The validation for the Virginia soldier lasted about 10 minutes. The Indian spokesman said Dickenson was calm throughout the ceremony. He appeared before a board composed of one representative each from India, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland and Sweden.

"Do you wish to be repatriated?" the committee chairman asked Dickenson.

"Yes, I do," Dickenson answered quietly.

"Then we will do everything possible to comply with your wishes," the Indian chairman said.

DULLES EXHORTS REDS TO AGREE ON MEETING

Challenges Moscow to Show Peaceful Intent

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles challenged Moscow tonight to show peaceful intentions by agreeing to a Western proposal for a meeting to discuss unification of divided Germany.

The proposal for such a meeting of foreign ministers at Lugano, Switzerland, Nov. 9, was put into final form and sent to Russia during a session of American, British and French foreign ministers in London. Dulles returned from this session only yesterday.

Dulles pictured Russia's forthcoming decision on this plan as a critical sign of whether Moscow is prepared to deal with the West on concrete terms in an effort to ease world tensions.

In an apparent reference to British Prime Minister Winston Churchill's often-made proposal for a meeting of the heads of State of Great Britain, France, the United States and Russia, Dulles said in an address prepared for the Herald-Tribune forum:

"It is our view that few things would be more dangerous than a meeting which produced illusion of agreement, without the reality of agreement."

"Therefore we (the American, British and French foreign ministers) proposed a meeting of foreign ministers about Germany."

"This will provide an answer to whether the Soviet Government is willing to have a meeting on terms which will provide an actual testing of its intentions in terms sufficiently concrete to be significant."

He Won't Do It Again — Knows It's Wrong Now

WHITING, Ind., Oct. 20 (AP)—A Civil Defense auxiliary fireman, apparently bored by lack of activity, admitted today he turned in 50 false alarms in 10 months, four of them in one night.

"I like to hear the sirens and see the fire trucks run," George Veloch, 40, a steel finisher, told City Judge George Pate, who fined him $25 and gave him a suspended 60-day State penal farm sentence.

"Now that I know it's wrong," Veloch promised, "I won't let it happen again."

WIFE IGNORES WAYNE—Actor John Wayne is ignored by his estranged wife, the former Esperanza Bauer, left, as he passes near her during recess in their divorce hearing in Los Angeles.

The screen's box office champion wants a divorce and also a big slash in what he calls her "fantastic" separate maintenance money demands.

'Rough to Live With — Drunk or Sober,' Wife of John Wayne Informs Court

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20 (AP)—John Wayne, the movies' No. 1 box-office star, was a rough man to live with, drunk or sober, his wife told a divorce court today.

The former Esperanza Bauer said she almost shot him by mistake when he came home drunk one morning and entered by smashing the door.

On another occasion he slapped her for putting avocado in a sandwich she said. In Acapulco, Mexico, he berated her for swimming in the ocean with some people she did not know were nude, she said.

Resuming the stand on the second day of the trial of her suit for separate maintenance and Wayne's cross-complaint asking for a divorce, Mrs. Wayne again brought up the name of actress Gail Russell, at whose home she charged her husband once spent a night.

DURING A RECESS today a lawyer representing Miss Russell threatened legal action against Mrs. Wayne, saying his client is outraged at the untruths concerning her at this trial.

The attorney was unsuccessful, however, in obtaining an audience with Superior Judge Allan Ashburn, who is trying the stormy case, already tabbed as one of the most bitter in movieland history.

Miss Russell is the estranged wife of Guy Madison, another screen he-man like Wayne.

Meanwhile Mrs. Wayne's attorney petitioned the court for funds to bring actress Betsy Von Furstenburg here from New York as a witness.

The attorney, Jerome Rosenthal, said Miss Von Furstenburg would explain the presence of Nick Hilton, son of hotelman Conrad Hilton, in the Wayne home for a week during Wayne's absence.

Yesterday Wayne charged an unnamed man spent a week with his wife while he was in Honolulu.

Russia Balks at Delay In Discussion of Trieste Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 20 (AP)—The UN Security Council today agreed to a full airing of the Palestine problem and later an into violent Russian opposition to moves to put off discussion of the Trieste issue.

Columbia said Britain, France and the United States were engaged in urgent efforts to settle Trieste's future through diplomatic moves and the council should not interfere.

Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky immediately shot back that "explosions of national passion" in Italy and Yugoslavia over Trieste made council action vital.

The battle over Trieste broke out after the council agreed to discuss Arab and Israeli violations of the Palestine armistice agreements with specific mention of the recent killings at Kibya.

The council voted 9 to 1 in favor of the delay despite Soviet Delegate Andrei Vishinsky's demand for immediate discussion. Lebanon abstained.

The Trieste question lay dormant in the UN for more than four years. Then, when trouble started again, Russia asked that discussion be resumed on appointing a governor for the territory, as provided in the Italian peace treaty.

Julius La Rosa 'Very Confused Guy' After On-the-Air Firing by Godfrey

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Singer Julius La Rosa struck out on his own today after getting his walking papers from the Arthur Godfrey shows in the presence of a nationwide radio and television audience.

Saying he always would be grateful to Godfrey, who plucked him from obscurity two years ago and made him a star, La Rosa nevertheless professed to be "a very confused guy" as a result of his sudden exit from the shows.

Meanwhile, arrangements were being made for La Rosa to appear regularly the next 52 weeks on Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town on CBS television Sunday nights. And La Rosa's newly signed manager said the 23-year-old singer's contract, which was with CBS rather than Godfrey, was being studied with a view to planning personal appearances and other activities.

THE APPARENT family fuss in the Godfrey organization also resulted in the departure of band leader Archie Bleyer from Godfrey's daytime and Wednesday night shows.

Bleyer's contract on the Monday night talent scouts has eight weeks to run.

Neither side spelled out details of the cause of the split, but observers drew the inference that Godfrey was displeased over La Rosa's and Bleyer's outside activities, including Arthur Godfrey's making of phonograph records. La Rosa made the hit disc, "Eh, Compari."

Godfrey makes records for Columbia Records, incorporated, a Columbia Broadcasting System subsidiary, and a number of them have been in the hit category. Although La Rosa is not under contract to Columbia records, he has made several Columbia recordings with Godfrey and others from the Radio-TV cast.

SCOUTS PLAN TO REORGANIZE

Plans to reorganize were up for discussion at Pottstown Boy Scout meetings this week.

Many have older Scouts ready to graduate to Explorer units. They have new boys coming into the troops from Cub packs, too.

So they will have to train new leaders to take charge of patrols and, in some cases, reorganize the patrols.

ZION'S REFORMED Troop 5 is one that will reorganize.

The troop now has one large patrol (16 Scouts) led by John C. Johnson, who will soon join the troop's Explorer unit.

Scoutmaster Wesley Nichols said that he will divide the large patrol into two smaller ones.

Scouts from the same general neighborhood will be grouped together in the new units, he explained.

Nichols will start a six-week training program to supply new leaders for the patrols. He said the classes would meet Tuesday nights.

THIS WEEK the troop worked on Second Class requirements.

St. James Lutheran Troop 18 was another that laid plans to reorganize.

Scoutmaster Edward W. Jameson revealed he is losing seven Scouts to the St. James Explorer unit. Among them is the senior patrol leader, David Oliver.

Jameson said he will reorganize the patrols and have members elect new leaders for each one.

The St. James troop charter will run out Nov. 30, and all members joining or staying in the troop will have to be signed up by Nov. 15, Jameson said.

The troop spent part of its meeting on a "fire prevention tour" of the church.

During the tour the Scouts noted where all exits and fire extinguishers were located, and reviewed safety rules for fire emergencies.

TRINITY REFORMED Troop 6 made final plans for its Halloween party next Monday night.

Each Scout will try to bring a friend or prospective member to the party at the church, Scoutmaster Joseph Bobb said.

Party chairman is Thomas Dickison. Donald Blum will be in charge of refreshments, John Freese, entertainment, and David Gehris, decorations.

Richard Miller, former Troop 6 Scribe, has returned from a stay in California and will rejoin the troop, Scoutmaster Bobb revealed.

First Methodist Troop 4 Scouts worked on advancement.

Local Legion Post To Award Jackets

Plans to fete the American Legion Junior baseball team were completed at a meeting of George A. Amole Post 47.

The Legionnaires will present jackets to the 15 members of the team at the Old Timers' banquet Nov. 12 at the Elks home.

Commander Robert C. Weller presided at Monday's meeting at which Clarence Renoll reported on the Legion's national convention held in St. Louis the past month.

Renoll told of the greeting extended the convention by Vice President Nixon and reported on the talk by William Early, president of the National Education association. Early urged a greater interest in the schools of the Nation.

Renoll also reported on the Pennsylvania delegation's work in putting up for nomination Arthur J. Connell, who was voted the new National commander.

Scoutmaster Dan Pettigrew said, "We're going to try to help the Scouts get ahead in rank now."

AMERICAN LEGION Troop 1 Scouts are busy with requirements for merit badges.

At their meeting at the Legion Scout camp, Fagleyville, they worked on music, firemanship, forestry and photography merit badges.

Transfiguration Lutheran Troop 16 is planning its first trip to Camp Delmont, Scribe Luther Rife Jr. said. About 15 Scouts plan to go along.

Most of the Transfiguration Scouts are working on Second Class requirements.

Richard Miller, former Troop 6 Scribe, has returned from a stay in California and will rejoin the troop, Scoutmaster Bobb revealed.

First Methodist Troop 4 Scouts worked on advancement.

Wilkinson Awaits Word Of Case in Court

Dog Catcher Willard Wilkinson has reiterated a promise to go through with his battle with Montgomery county SPCA agents.

Wilkinson, who was convicted of cruelty to animals by Schwenksville Justice of the Peace Walter Jarman, has appealed his case in Montgomery county court through Attorney Louis Sager.

Sager reported he had not received notification of when the case will come up in court.

The ancient Egyptians painted eyes on their ships and even today, small boats in the Orient have painted eyes to help them "see" says the National Geographic Society.

Lutheran Group to Unite With Other Brotherhoods

Men of St. James Lutheran brotherhood have decided to unite with other brotherhoods in the Norristown conference.

The St. James group has been an independent one up until now, a spokesman said after Monday's meeting at the church.

Plans for a visitation evangelism program were discussed during the business session. President Paul Klaus was in charge.

The Rev. Edward S. Horn, pastor, led in devotions and Walter Wetherhold played the piano for the song session. Twenty members attended.

Surviving are two daughters, Bessie Reed, at home, and Mrs. Edna Christman, East Greenville; a sister, Sallie Reed, Pennsburg, and a grandson.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. from the Hunsberger Funeral home, 163 Main street, Pennsburg.

Officiating will be Dr. Calvin M. DeLong, pastor of New Goshenhoppen Reformed church, and the Rev.

Services for A. LOUISE REYNOLDS, of 25 EAST MAIN STREET, SOUTH POTTSTOWN, daughter of the late John and Elizabeth (Ennor) Reynolds, were held yesterday at 2 p. m. from the Schumacher funeral home, 359 King street.

Officiating was the Rev. George F. Eichorn, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, South Pottstown, and interment was made in Mt. Zion cemetery.

Bearers were William Brownback, Clinton Brownback, Fred Kelley, Nevin Reynolds, James Waters and Edgar Jones.

Until the atomic era, uranium was merely a by-product of radium, and vanadium mines, useful for coloring glass, pottery and artificial teeth.

The funds for the job also have been appropriated, Lamb said.

The project of constructing the four-bridge span across West High street will cost "several million dollars" Lamb estimated, probably about two-and-a-half million, although actual cost won't be known until the bids are opened.

The span would cross the Schuylkill river, the Pennsylvania railroad tracks, the Reading company's tracks, and West High street.

The northernmost end of the bridge will wind up at the King street level.

Lamb said he thought that work on the project might start this Winter.

Oct. 13—Burglars broke into the office of the Concrete Products company of America (just past the borough line, on Moser road) and made a futile attack on the safe, getting nothing.

Oct. 16—For the second time in two years, Melbrooke Textiles plant, Farmington avenue and Oak street, was broken into. Burglars got $30, ransacked the office and assaulted the safe.

Oct. 19—Safe-crackers got more than $500 from the Strand theater, High and Charlotte streets, apparently lurking in the theater until it had been closed after Sunday's late show.

The Fuel of The Future

The Fuel of The Future

The Fuel of The Future

Pottstown and Area Dealers for Anthracite Coal - "The Fuel of the Future" - Join in Support of Cleaner Air Week . . .

This week is part of a national air pollution control program to give every community cleaner, purer air through reduction of smoke, ash and industrial fumes and gases.

The fuel supply situation, plus increasing air pollution, plus new, efficient coal burning equipment has now caused many fuel authorities to regard anthracite coal as "THE FUEL OF THE FUTURE."

Even in time of national emergency, anthracite will still be in abundant supply and economically priced. Its high carbon content makes it smokeless and clean. It produces healthful, even heat because of its steady burning quality. New stokers make it completely automatic.

CLEANER AIR WEEK is a 52 - weeks - per - year job with this particular week focusing public attention on the need for control of air pollution from all sources. The anthracite industry will give direct and practical help to the program by providing heating engineering counsel free of charge to any public, commercial or domestic consumers of any kind of fuel.

Much can be done to eliminate air pollution by use of anthracite coal and modernization of home, school and industrial plant heating equipment.

8 PERTINENT POINTS WHY YOU SHOULD USE ANTHRACITE COAL:

1. Anthracite does not smoke or create soot. It is being specified more and more for civic cleanliness by smoke abatement and anti-pollution committees.
2. New equipment provides anthracite users with wholly automatic heating units. These are mechanically fed from sealed storage spaces and are designed to fit the decorative schemes of furnished basements.
3. Automatic equipment will heat the average dwelling at less cost than competitive fuels in 90% of the marketing area; in some areas at savings up to 40%.
4. Anthracite has inherent advantages in terms of safety, health and comfort.
5. Information from various sections upon which statistics are being compiled shows less incidence of fire or explosion in homes heated by anthracite.
6. A research study made several years ago showed less incidence of respiratory illness in anthracite heated homes, especially among children under 16 and adults over 60.
7. Surveys show anthracite to be a "comfortable" fuel because of its constant heat source, as compared to "on and off" intermittent heat sources which tend to create cold air pockets.
8. Anthracite is a dependable source of fuel, with more than 150 years of supply in reserve. It is one of America's most valuable natural resources.

Be Wise! Use Anthracite Coal - The Fuel of the Future!

SPREAD SPREE —

The other two women in the early trio were:

Mrs. G. Earl Miller, 68 North Washington street, whose bedspread dates back to 1844, five years earlier than the one in yesterday's Mercury.

MRS. LESTER Fryer, Zieglerville, who came into The Mercury office with a bedspread that also dated back to 1844 and was made by the same man who wove the spread that touched off the spread spree—Samuel Gilbert, Trappe.

All three spreads are elegant jobs of hand-loomed, with intricate designs, and bright colors that time has not faded.

On each spread, the maker wove a big label, with his name, the date it was made, and the name of the person for whom he made it.

Mrs. Istenes said, "I should imagine that the spread was sort of a hope chest piece." As proof of this, she noted that they had been regarded as family heirlooms and were passed along from generation to generation.

Mrs. Istenes also pointed out that the spreads are excellent examples of Pennsylvania Dutch craftsmanship. On hers are the Pennsylvania Dutch "dove of peace," she said, which recently was brought back into prominence by being made the design on dinner plates served at the mammoth birthday party for President Eisenhower in Hershey.

The label on Mrs. Istenes' spread says that it was woven by Michael Weand, "Borough of Pottstown," for Hannah Yohn in 1837.

Hannah Yohn was Mrs. Istenes' maternal great-great-grandmother. Mrs. Istenes also said that the spreads seem to have linen threads as the foundation for the wool design, and that the wool threads probably were made from home-grown wool.

That the "hope chest" nature of the spreads has never been entirely lost was pointed out by Mrs. Miller, who recalled, "Ever since I was small, my mother used to say, 'There's a spread that you will get someday.'" Mrs. Miller got it when she was married.

Mrs. Miller's spread has been in the family from the day in 1811 when John Kachel made it for Catherine Moyer.

Mrs. Miller had the spread in use until two years ago.

Many of the early settlers in Nova Scotia were Scots and the inhabitants of Cape Breton Island, a part of Nova Scotia, often still speak Gaelic and keep alive the tradition of the Highland Games.

Extended Dry Spell Really No Joke, But Yarns Fly Anyway

Some pretty good yarns are springing up from the extended dry spell now suffocating the Nation.

One of them (unconfirmed) described a fire company called to pump water into a dry well near Perkiomenville.

Then there was the farmer who raised string beans. He's nearly at the end of his rope. Or did you hear about the stream that has two banks, but no liquid assets. Enough!

The situation has gotten so bad that Gov. John S. Fine last night said the State's small game hunting season may be postponed for the second straight year because of drought, unless sufficient rain falls before the season opens Saturday.

OF COURSE, a heavy rainfall has been predicted before the end of the month, but there's many a forest fire between the prediction and the rain.

Locally, yesterday was another in a series of balmy Indian Summer days, with the temperature reaching 74 degrees, six short of the record on this date.

Today also will be warm and fair, with a high from 74 to 78, and the same for tomorrow.

NAACP Meeting Delayed

A meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, originally scheduled for last night, has been postponed to a date in the near future.

Secretary Henry Dozier said last night that no definite date has yet been decided upon.

Trojan Fur Flies in Practice

JV's STIR UP VARSITY; BEDELL'S AVERAGE SLIPS

The leather really popped at Franklin field yesterday afternoon and the coaches' eyes popped when they saw how well the junior varsity stood up to the Pottstown High first stringers.

A rough and tumble scrimmage was held and the reserves showed that they have intentions of improving their status at the expense of some of the regulars.

Coach Heeb Meyers said the players were hitting much harder than usual and if a win over West Chester is possible next Saturday, it will take that style of play to turn the trick.

Old Timers Hold Banquet Meeting At Borough Hall

The Tri-County Old Timers Booster club will meet again tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Borough Hall to discuss details for their first annual banquet Nov. 12.

Reports on ticket sales will be given at this meeting by members of the different committees. Club chairman, Herbert "Pop" Myers wants all the members of the Old Timers baseball team as well as other men serving on committees to be certain to attend this meeting.

The success or failure of the banquet hinges on the details that are discussed tonight. Only with good attendance can the banquet program be completely arranged.

MYERS HAS ANNOUNCED that several plants have reserved tables at the Eagles Home association where the banquet will be held. Other companies, clubs or groups are welcome to do the same. In that way, persons wishing to attend can sit with friends.

Ira Thomas, Chief Bender and possibly Bobby Shantz will be some of the big names attending.

Chitwood Adds Thomson to List Of Drivers Competing at Hatfield

HATFIELD, Oct. 20—Speedway manager Joie Chitwood continued to sign star drivers today for his AAA big car auto races Sunday afternoon at Hatfield half mile speedway. The latest is Johnny Thomson, of Springfield, Mass.

Thomson, who just recently smashed a speed record of seven years' standing on the Virginia State fair track, Richmond, now ranks as one of the leading dirt track drivers in the land. He currently holds down seventh place in the AAA Eastern dirt track championship.

Until just recently, he occupied fourth spot in the 1953 title chase. Then his campaign was interrupted by two accidents, both of them occurring in races at the Reading fairgrounds. In the first, he was hospitalized for four days after getting his race car on top of him, and in the second for two weeks as a result of crashing through a racetrack guard rail.

SHORTLY AFTER the first accident, the New England driver traveled to Richmond, Va., and lowered a half mile qualifying record which the late Ted Horn had established on Oct. 11, 1947. Thomson sped around the half-mile Richmond track in 23.43 seconds to eclipse Horn's old mark of 23.79 seconds.

After hoisting the new standard, Johnny went on to win the featured sweepstakes event at the Virginia State fair, defeating such

Several of the first stringers were absent from the scrimmage due to bruises received in the Phoenixville game, and others were out with different ailments.

Fullback Bill Kerr and center Jack Babel have banged-up legs but they'll be ready to play against the visiting Warriors. Third string fullback Ron Keifridner injured a leg in the jayvee game against Phoenixville on Monday and Wils Bedell also had to drop out of that tilt as his injured back again gave him trouble.

At the cost of improving their defense, Meyers is worried that his players suffered a letdown on offense in the Phoenixville game. The Trojans spent many hours on tackling drills the past week and the results were clearly evident as the Phoenix ground attack seldom moved for a first down.

More time will be spent this week trying to get the boys perk up on their running and blocking assignments. Meyers and plenty of others feel the Trojans could be a winning team with fewer mistakes at inopportune times.

For the second straight week a sizeable dent was inflicted in Howie Bedell's rushing average. Actually he gained 82 yards against Phoenixville but three big losses of nine yards each and a few smaller setbacks almost doubled his yards lost for the season.

As it now stands he has averaged an even 140 yards per game, and slightly better than six yards for each of his 80 ball carrying attempts.

Clark Burns also was slowed down and added only five net yards to his second place total.

Big gainer in the game against the Phantoms was Kerr. The red-head moved into third place ahead of his fullback mate, Flip Smoyer, although little Jonathan picked up 13 yards in two carries. Kerr continued his record of not having lost a yard on any of his 25 smashes into the line.

The bout will be televised nationally but blacked out locally. It was originally scheduled for last Aug. 15, but Johnson cancelled out to box Ezzard Charles at Philadelphia Sept. 8.

Chitwood Adds Thomson to List Of Drivers Competing at Hatfield

HATFIELD, Oct. 20—Speedway manager Joie Chitwood continued to sign star drivers today for his AAA big car auto races Sunday afternoon at Hatfield half mile speedway. The latest is Johnny Thomson, of Springfield, Mass.

Thomson, who just recently smashed a speed record of seven years' standing on the Virginia State fair track, Richmond, now ranks as one of the leading dirt track drivers in the land. He currently holds down seventh place in the AAA Eastern dirt track championship.

Until just recently, he occupied fourth spot in the 1953 title chase. Then his campaign was interrupted by two accidents, both of them occurring in races at the Reading fairgrounds. In the first, he was hospitalized for four days after getting his race car on top of him, and in the second for two weeks as a result of crashing through a racetrack guard rail.

SHORTLY AFTER the first accident, the New England driver traveled to Richmond, Va., and lowered a half mile qualifying record which the late Ted Horn had established on Oct. 11, 1947. Thomson sped around the half-mile Richmond track in 23.43 seconds to eclipse Horn's old mark of 23.79 seconds.

After hoisting the new standard, Johnny went on to win the featured sweepstakes event at the Virginia State fair, defeating such HINNERST ENTERS HATFIELD RACES—With his AAA Eastern dirt track title in jeopardy for the first time in five years, auto race driver Tommy Hinnerst must win this Sunday's AAA big car auto races at Hatfield Speedway to overtake pacesetter Joe Sostilio in the championship. Shown here is Hinnerst, on the outside, in the act of passing another driver in a recent race at the Reading Fairgrounds. Tommy will be aboard the same car in the races Sunday at Hatfield.

Fred Greenly, Pugs To Show in South On Magnolia Circuit

Fred Greenly and a trio of pugs will travel throughout Dixie next week competing in dog shows on the Magnolia circuit.

The Pottstown breeder and trainer is showing his dogs in this circuit for the first time, although in January, 1952, he and his pugs competed in nine shows in the Florida Winter circuit.

Carrying the Greenly colors will be Ch. Allen's Glory of Spring, rated as one of the top five pugs in the country and Greenly's greatest winner. The two-year-old, who answers to the name Plum around the house, will be accompanied by a black pug, Greenly's Pot of Coal, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Webb, of Pittsburgh, and Venesse of Gladwyn, owned by Dr. J. J. Stubbs, of Frederick, Md.

The latter dog is a fawn female import from England, having arrived in this country in April. Greenly will try to pick up some championship points for the owners of these two newcomers to the show world.

THE COMPETITION in the South will be as keen, if not keener than it has been here in the East all Summer. During the current lag in local dog tours, the Southern kennel clubs bunch nine shows in a period of two weeks.

Most of the top dogs will be taken South, or brought in from the Midwest and West Coast to test their physiques and manners against a fine crop of Dixie-bred dogs.

Greenly will enter his charges in five of the nine shows along the circuit as he can remain in the South only one week. He will leave Pottstown Friday and show his dogs Saturday in Statesville, N. C. Sunday he'll be at Athens, Ga., and then travel to Anderson, S. C., on Monday, and Spartanburg, S. C., on Tuesday. After a show at Florence, S. C., on Thursday, Greenly will return home.

Plum, the all-time Greenly champ, has been making a habit of winning not only the pug breed but also advancing to the top of the toy group. He turned the best in group trick twice the past week-end.

Greenly says: "We'll be gunning for the group wherever we go, but it's going to be a fight even to get through the breed."

OF THE OTHER FOUR highly rated pugs, one will be brought in from Seattle, another from Indiana and two from New York. Plum has defeated all four dogs in competition, but beating them all together is another story.

In addition to an outstanding crop of dogs, the Magnolia circuit will have the top judges in the land. As if the southern marathon isn't enough, Greenly plans to rush off again the Sunday after he returns to show his champion in the Union County Kennel club show at Elizabeth, N. J., Nov. 1.

In 1934 the Detroit Lions, in their first season in the NFL, won seven straight shutouts—a record which still stands.

It is quite obvious he is the man to stop when West Chester plays the Pottstown Trojans at Franklin field Saturday afternoon.

After a mediocre Junior year, Lawson has come on strong to win acclaim as the best back in the league. Trojan assistant coach Bill McCabe watched Lawson as he scored all his team's touchdowns in a 19-0 win over Downingtown last Saturday. McCabe had this to say:

"Lawson is another Sam Green on offense. He runs the same way Sam did—squirming and struggling for every yard he can get. A half-hearted tackle never brings him down. He's not Green on defense but he moves just like Sam as a runner."

LAWSON STARTED his race to the league scoring title by romping to four TD's against Phoenixville. He added another as West Chester lost to Bridgeport and then tacked on three more against the Whip-pets.

League leading Bridgeport has distributed its points among five players with Pat Picariello and Ed Denzi tied for second place behind Lawson, each with two touchdowns. End Bob Phillippy has tallied eight points for the Dragons on a TD and two extra points.

Several other players have one six-pointer each and West Chester captain Sandy Morris tops the place kickers with three extra points.

The league conversion mark is very poor. Twenty touchdowns have been scored and only six conversions made.

Pottstown is the only team that does not have someone in the scoring column, having been blanked in its league opener against Phoenixville.

Seven of the 16 big league clubs, four in the National, were named to the AP's eighth annual All-Star squad, selected today by 179 members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The National league had seven players to only three for the American.

The Dodgers and Cardinals were the only clubs with more than one representative. Oddly enough, the world champion New York Yankees had only one member on the All-Star team—shortstop Phil Rizzuto.

Little Phil barely squeezed in by a two-vote margin over Brooklyn's Pee Wee Reese. Other clubs with single representatives include Washington, Cleveland, Milwaukee and the Philadelphia Phillies.

Four players are holdovers from the 1952 team. They are pitcher Roberts, outfielder Musial and infielders Rosen and Rizzuto. Musial made the team for the seventh time, missing only once since the poll was inaugurated in 1946.

Musial, whose monopoly on the National league batting title finally was broken after four consecutive seasons, topped all outfielders in the vote-getting department. He was named on 142 ballots, nipping Snider by a single vote.

Furillo, the Senior circuit's new batting champion, won the third outfield berth with 93 votes. The biggest vote-getter on the squad was Campanella, Brooklyn's iron-man receiver. The great slugger commanded all but five of the votes cast, making a shambles of his race with Yogi Berra. Campy got 174 votes to the Yankee catcher's five. Last year, Berra edged out Campanella by two votes.

Schoendienst, the Cardinals' brilliant second baseman, also faced little or no opposition although he had to stomp down six would-be contenders. Red polled 163 votes to six for Billy Goodman, three each for Nellie Fox and Jackie Robinson, two for World Series hero Billy Martin and one each for Granny Hamner and Junior Gilliam.

Heavy Weekend Program

Hill, Upper Perk Try to Stretch Unbeaten Streaks

The football season glides into its second half this weekend as a crowded local card allows the fans a choice of almost a dozen games on Friday and Saturday.

All the Ches-Mont league teams are in action with local interested focused on West Chester's invasion of Franklin field Saturday afternoon. Of the seven Perk league teams, only Schwenksville is idle.

Hill school, the winningest team in the area, goes after victory No. 5 against PMC Prep. Both teams defeated Williamson Trade by big scores making the game a tossup if comparisons count. The Blues of coach Frank Bissell opened the '52 campaign with a 12-7 win over the Cadets. This game on Saturday will be the Hill's fourth home appearance in five starts.

Friday night another unbeaten streak will be put on the line and it looks like a safe bet Upper Perk teams will gain its fourth win. The Indians' opponent is hapless Governor Mifflin, the erstwhile Shilling-ton team that has suffered five straight losses. The game will be played at Albright stadium. Boyertown has a tough nut to crack on Friday night at Lower Moreland. The Bears are 3-2 after dropping a close one to Wilson High last Saturday. Lower Moreland tied a plenty-good Jenkintown team, 26-26, last week, and its only loss was to powerful Neshaminy.

COLLEGEVILLE should continue its practice of winning and losing on alternate weekends when it plays at Upper Dublin on Saturday. The Colts have their 'win' week coming up after suffering their third loss to Roversford last Friday. The Dublin boys were nipped by Schwenksville 13-12 two weeks ago.

The comeback team of the Perk league, Roversford will have to continue its improvement if it is to gain win No. 3 against Wilson High. The Eagles will host the team that surprised Boyertown. This game, played at Roversford, shapes up as "tight."

The Wildcats of North Coventry can even their record at 2-2 with a triumph at Wyomissing. The Sunsets, after beating Schwenksville and Upper Dublin, dropped two in a row to Collegeville and Susquehanna. A good offense by Norco could turn the trick. Al Brown's team showed an improved attack in beating Schwenksville, 19-0.

Spring City plays at home against a team that has a similar record, 1-3. Marple Newtown lost a close one, 13-12, to Yeaton last week while the Pirates were being blanked for the third straight week, 20-0, by Nether Providence. A healthier Buc team could give Coach Bud Cleveland his second win.

POTTSTOWN JUNIOR HIGH gets the big weekend of football rolling Friday afternoon when it plays its third home game against Rittenhouse Junior High of Norristown at Franklin field. The Golden Cubs have managed to lose two out of their three games and coach Gene Kauler plans to end one of his longest losing streaks. With fewer miscues, the Cubs should romp over the none-too-strong Rits.

Ursinus, 2-1, travels to play unbeaten Swarthmore on Saturday in a college game that promises to be a close match. The Bears topped Susquehanna in their opener, 32-14. By almost the same point spread, Swarthmore opened with a 27-7 win over Susquehanna.

The Ches-Mont league has its biggest weekend to date. In addition to the Trojan-Warrior game, Bridgeport is at Downingtown and Berwyn at Coatesville, Phoenixville plays at Norristown.

Elks Kne-Hi Banquet

The Championship Elks team of the Kne-Hi league will be honored at a banquet at the Elks home tonight at 7 o'clock. Jackets will be handed out to the team which has won three titles in four years and retires the first Kne-Hi league trophy.

Team manager Red Borgiet said Bucky Walters, present Boston Braves coach and former Cincinnati manager and pitcher, may attend.

Roberts with most victories, 23. Spahn also led the National league pitchers in earned run percentage.

In all 13 pitchers received recognition. Southpaw Billy Pierce of the White Sox and right hander Bob Porterfield of the Senators were runners-up to Spahn and Roberts, respectively. Pierce had 40 votes to 30 for Porterfield.

Most competition was for the outfield where 24 fliers vied for the three positions. Mickey Mantle with 29, Orestes Mino with 28 and Ted Williams with 23 were closest to the first named trio. Williams, returning from Korea in July after nearly two years in service, batted a phenomenal .407 and slammed 13 homers in 37 games for the Boston Red Sox.

ROSEN WALKED off with third base honors, receiving 116 votes to 59 for Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee, the majors' newly crowned home run king. The Cleveland slugger, in line for Most Valuable Player honors, paced the American league in home runs, runs batted in, slugging and lost the batting crown by a fraction of a point.

Roberts, winner of 20 or more games for the fourth consecutive season, drew the most votes of any pitcher. He had 132 to 116 for Spahn, the Braves' Southpaw ace, who tied

It's good to have money and the things money can buy, but it's good, too, to check up once in awhile and make sure that you haven't lost the things that money can't buy.—George Horace Lorimer.

You Are Paying for Crime

THE shocking lesson to be learned from Pottstown's present crime wave of burglaries and safe crackings is that the toll of damages is not assessed only against the direct victim.

The indirect victims pay the costs of all these unsolved thefts, whether they come in high street business houses, in industrial plants, or in private homes.

And the indirect victims are all of us!

Crime causes increases in burglary insurance rates. It is a threat to real estate values. It increases the cost of food, clothing, taxes and innumerable other items.

All of us pay!

Pottstown should be shocked by this latest crime wave, in which safe-cracking has resulted at the rate of more than one a week.

In the past five weeks, six burglaries have been discovered in Pottstown, and a seventh one just outside the borough line. Of the seven, three have included attacks on safes.

As a Mercury researcher pointed out in a news story yesterday, if the latest outbreak continues, it would rival the biggest of previous outbreaks, that of the pre-Christmas season of 1949, when major safe-crackings were a one-a-week occurrence.

The past year, there were 32 Pottstown burglaries in four months.

Pottstown should be shocked . . . yes, shocked into action to demand that extraordinary precautions be taken to eliminate recurrences of these terrible crime waves.

Certainly Pottstown cannot station a policeman in every store, in every home, in every plant, to frighten away robbers.

But there is a chance that better and more complete police patrolling of the community might discourage crime, or, perchance, turn up the thugs who are victimizing the borough.

Pottstown is woefully weak in its police protection at the hours when most of these crimes probably were committed. There was a time when only TWO POLICEMEN were on duty between the hours of 4 a.m. and 8 a.m. They had to protect the entire town!

Does this same condition persist?

Why is Pottstown's police strength concentrated in the daylight hours?

Why aren't the skilled policemen, the experienced policemen, the hardened policemen, who now are favored with perpetual day work, switched to meet this emergency?

Why can't the shifts be altered to throw the police strength into the early morning hours, when apparently most needed?

Were the Pottstown police force actuated by pride and enthusiasm, it were likely that the experienced officers themselves would suggest a realignment of strength to meet the threat.

If the Pottstown police department had proper leadership, proper executive ability, there'd be no question of what steps would be taken to break up the crime wave.

There'd be a general overhauling of the working hours. Every cop on the force would be out on the streets, in uniform and out of uniform, determined to collar the crooks who are giving the department a black eye.

The commander-in-chief of an alert police department would rally his forces, disperse them judiciously and stop this threat against us all!

The direct victims of burglaries and safe crackings is shocked into becoming an active participant in the fight against crime.

This was showed by the voluntary start of a reward fund by H. Melvin Gingrich, president of the Melbrooke Textiles, Inc. In an effort to capture the thieves, Mr. Gingrich started off a fund with $25, inviting other victims to join with him to bring the culprits to the bar of justice.

When more of the indirect victims are similarly shocked into action by knowledge that they are being victimized, it will be a bad day for criminals, and a good day for the law-abiding community.

You who pay more for insurance, for food and clothing, must demand that borough hall authorities fight this crime wave now!

PUNKIN CORNERS, October 20.
Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by The Mercury where Pottstown's councilmen are airing the public garbage stink. It's about time the borough fathers clamp a lid on the situation, like the collector doesn't clamp lids on cans!

An item says Pottstown could take a tip from Hamburg, Germany, when it came to garbage talk. Hamburg was the hardest hit bomb target of the war. But it has been cleared of all wreckage. In other words, it no longer looks like Hamburg.

And say: A highly successful craps shooter, even though he has no college degree, might be called a bone specialist. Hopin' you air the same.

Popular Music Is Phony; Face the Facts

Nitwits Taking Over

To the Editor: Everybody talks about how corny and phony the new popular songs are getting, and I agree.

Popular music began its decline with World War II. Today it's fallen as flat as the records on which it is heard.

The morons around the jukeboxes have just about gotten away from "music" altogether.

They're on a crying jag these days. Not long ago they went wild over a crying crooner; now they're "crying in the chapel."

This sorry state is the result of a noticeable and alarming decline of general intelligence in this country.

The wars have killed off most people of moderate intelligence, leaving the nitwits in the majority, and their power is growing.

Favors Natural Foods

To the Editor: In answer to your editorial "Look in the Windows" (Oct. 15), may I suggest that you look in the hospitals and graveyards and see the results of white bread embalmed with sodium propionate, a chemical about which very little is known as to its effect upon the human body.

However, by all means let the millers and bakers have free license to poison the public for the sake of profit for what matters it if a few million people die each year from cancer, polio, coronary thrombosis, etc. just so their sacred profit is not curtailed?

Some 740 different chemicals are used in the preparation of synthetic and devitalized foods and then the public is bled for money to combat the resultant diseases.

Diseases such as typhoid, dysentery, cholera and malaria were eliminated by sanitation.

Cancer, polio, heart and circulatory diseases could be eliminated by outlawing the use of poisonous chemicals in foods, prohibiting the manufacture of synthetic foods and teaching the people to eat foods as God created them.

Let's be honest and face the facts instead of becoming childish in our attempt to fight socialism and communism.

Communism is just another disease, the result of tyranny and greed by which the former rulers of Russia and China made the people slaves.

That the people of those countries have jumped from the frying pan into the fire is very unfortunate, but we could help them more by setting our own house in order and set an example of honesty rather than ridicule them.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

A RETURN TO the notion that a woman is in "a delicate condition" during her pregnancy may at least help lessen the number of defective babies being born.

A delicate condition calls for tender care which affects the future baby, as well as the mother.

It was believed that children who were born defective, inherited this tendency from their parents. However, it is becoming more and more apparent that a misadventure during pregnancy, such as some infection, is often the cause.

Things that can cause damage to the unborn infant are X-rays, syphilis, certain types of parasitic infections, mumps, anesthesia, heart disease and serious accidents. A mother who has an attempted abortion may also so injure her child as to cause a defect at birth.

It would seem that all the unborn babies have the necessary organs for normal life at the start. What organs will be affected depends upon the time the injury to the infant occurs within the mother's womb.

A defect may occur when the mother has German measles. When this disease occurs during the first five to six weeks of pregnancy, cataracts of the eyes may occur in the newborn infant.

If it occurs at nine to ten weeks, the child often may be born deaf. These coincide with the times of differentiation of the parts of the baby within the mother's womb.

For some unknown reason, many infant births occur pre-maturely without any known cause. It seems that a defective child does not have as great a chance of maturing in the mother's womb as a normal child.

"Mother, I'm dumb," he wailed. "I can't get high grades like the other kids."

"They call me 'dumb-head' and 'stupid.' So can't you please help me?"

"I'd like to be smart like other kids and make high grades!"

CASES LIKE Peter torture parents.

For every normal Dad or Mother yearns to relieve his child of unnecessary heartache.

Sometimes, unfortunately, children are born with such a low I. Q. that they need to be placed in special schools for retarded youngsters.

But most children have enough I. Q. to make creditable grades. So the difficulty is not lack of brain power, but improper training and poor motivation.

First of all, be sure your child's eyesight and hearing are okay and also see that his general health is up to par.

Then help him at home with some careful tutoring, as with flash cards.

Go through his reading book and pick out various nouns, verbs and adjectives.

Print each one on a strip of white cardboard. Then start him with two cards. Show him the differences between the two words. Then shuffle the cards and see if he can identify them.

When he knows the two words perfectly, add a third and repeat the process. For variation, you can have him act out the verbs, such as "run," "walk," "laugh," "cry," "jump," etc.

INVITE HIS Daddy to compete with him, but be sure that Daddy doesn't win more than once out of every three or four times, or the child's motivation is reduced.

And don't drill with flash cards more than 5 to 15 minutes at a time.

You can also use such cards for teaching the multiplication tables, as well as addition, subtraction, etc.

In fact, the same set of cards can bear printed reading words on one side and arithmetic combinations such as 5 x 9, on the reverse side.

To stimulate reading further, let the child read comic books aloud to his Mother and Daddy while they do the dishes.

Offer him his choice of reading or washing the dishes. He'll usually select the task of reading. But be very lavish with praise and very careful how you correct his mispronunciation.

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 20—It's just about finalized for Howard Hughes to borrow Rock Hudson from Universal—to play opposite Jane Russell in "The Big Rainbow." Hudson would be finishing with "Magnificent Obsession" in time, for "Rainbow" does not start 'till Nov. 2. . . . H. H. is also in a mood to lend Keith Andes to John Wayne and Bob Fellows for "The High and the Mighty."

Greer Garson gads to England tomorrow on a rush trip to plug the opening of "Julius Caesar" for dear old Metro. . . . And Pat O'Brien looped off to Memphis, Tenn., yesterday where he'll actually perform with the Clyde Beatty Circus. While Pat's carrying on in the ring, cameras will record it all for scenes in "Ring of Fear." Mickey Spillane is in this too. Also Gonzales Gonzales, who created a small last riot guesting on a recent TV show.

KATHRYN GRAYSON may be dating Byron Palmer, but he and Barbara Darrow are regular midnight-snackers at the Brown Derby's new coffee shop. Byron leaves on a theater tour soon with "Man in the Attic." This is a re-make of "The Lodger," with Palmer in the old George Sanders role—and Jack Palance in the part once played by the late Laird Cregar. . . . Hedy Lamarr supposedly took her psychiatrist along with her to Italy, but he doesn't seem to have made much progress. Hedy's feuding with director E. Elmer, who's been trying to direct her in "Femina," has cost the company thousands in delays.

ERROL FLYNN is up to here in hassles with his producing partner on "William Tell." Whether the picture will ever be completed, who knows? . . . Marlene Dietrich and Orson Welles are becoming a familiar brace in Manhattan places. . . . Gregory Peck, done with "Night People" in Germany, is poised for a jaunt to India where he stars in "The Purple Plain." . . . Valentina Cortese, so terribly ill in the past year, is bedded once more in Rome. Her devoted spouse, Richard Basehart (currently doing "The Good Die Young" in London) has flown to see her. . . . 3-D is dead but not buried around here—but in Trinidad, they sell the polaroid glasses at 36 cents each when a deplorable is playing. Same price as they charge for admission! . . . Ingrid Bergman makes her operatic bow at the San Carlo in Naples, mid-December. Her role is spoken, not sung. The opus is "St. Joan at the Stake."

IT HAPPENED TODAY

1746—Charter of Princeton university granted. 1773—Samuel Coleridge, noted English poet, born. 1805—English and French fleets fought Battle of Trafalgar Bay; British Adm. Horatio Nelson was victorious, but killed.

Weigh-In Draws Interest

Olson Still 11 to 5 Choice to Defeat Turpin for Middleweight Championship

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Carl (Bobo) Olson, a busy ring mechanic from Hawaii and San Francisco, today remained a solid 11 to 5 choice over Britain's unpredictable Randy Turpin in tomorrow's 15-round bout for the world middleweight championship.

The two capable contenders will meet for the crown, vacated last year by Sugar Ray Robinson, at 10 p. m. Pottstown time at Madison Square Garden. The nation will watch and listen on CBS radio and television although New York and a 75-mile area will be blacked out of the TV picture.

Turpin's sporadic training methods at Grosinger, N. Y. confused writers, managers, trainers and some of his own camp followers. The eager youngster who frequently sparred 15 rounds gave way to a moody fellow who boxed only five times in three weeks. The pick here is Olson.

Although the fight lacks the tremendous appeal of Turpin's first visit to America, two months after he had upset the mighty Robinson, it should come close to packing the Garden. More than 60,000 paid about $767,000 to see Turpin in 1951

at the Polo Grounds. This time he'll probably draw 17,000 and about $175,000. Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing club, said the advance sale was "in excess of $110,000."

Because of Turpin's strange workouts, there is unusual interest in the weigh-in, scheduled for noon in the Garden lobby. When Dr. Vincent Nardiello of the New York State Athletic commission put Randy on the scales last Thursday, it was reliably reported he weighed 161. George Middleton, the grocer who managed the ex-champ, insists he will have no trouble making the 160-pound class limit.

Turpin had to sweat off eight ounces in a steam bath to make 160 June 9 when he fought France's Charles Humez for European title recognition.

Olson never had trouble making the limit although he did scale 165 last March for a bout with Garth Panter. When he beat Paddy Young in the Garden, June 19 for the American championship he weighed 159½. Sid Flaherty, his manager, said the fighter will be at 159 for Turpin. He weighed 161 pounds today at Asbury Park, N. J.

Middies Zoom To No. 1 Scoring Team in Nation

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Navy's 65-7 outburst against Princeton Saturday shot the Midshipmen to first place among the nation's major college football teams in scoring, to second in total offense and third in rushing, figures of the NCAA Service bureau showed today.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz's Midshipmen, rolling up the highest score of the season in a game between major teams, raised their four-game averages to 38 points, 392.5 total yards and 275.5 yards on the ground.

Navy trails Utah's 401-2 in total offense, and Illinois' 322 and Kansas State's 279 in rushing.

The figures show there is an unprecedented house-cleaning taking place among statistical leaders. Among the 10 top teams in total offense, rushing and passing, and the top five in scoring, there are only three repeaters from 1952.

THEY ARE MARYLAND, sixth in total offense and tied for tenth last year; West Virginia, fourth in rushing and eighth a year ago; and Fordham, passing leader last year and last week, and now sixth.

College of Pacific took over the No. 1 passing spot, with a five-game average of 179 yards gaining 200 yards while losing to Texas Tech. Northwestern is second with 173.5. Utah is the most accurate passing team. The Utes have hit with 56 of 96 attempts for 58.3 percent, although ranked ninth in yardage.

Utah moved into the total offense lead with its second straight 400-plus performance in yardage, bagging 417 against Denver after making 442 against Utah State. Utah, unbeaten in five games, is second to Navy in scoring, with 33.8 points a game and first in total points scored with 169 to Maryland's 158 and Navy's 152.

RANDY TURPIN

BOBO OLSON

ONE WILL BE A CHAMP—Vacated in December of 1952 when Sugar Ray Robinson gave up 160-pound title, boxing's middleweight championship will be filled again tonight when Randy Turpin of Britain meets Carl (Bobo) Olson of Hawaii in New York's Madison Square Garden. The fight will be televised nationally, except in the New York Areas.

PORTERFIELD, HADDIX '53 SHUTOUT KINGS

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Washington's Bob Porterfield, a hard-luck hurler for most of his big league career, and rookie southpaw Harvey Haddix, in his first full season with the St. Louis Cardinals, were the 1953 shutout kings of the majors.

Figures compiled by the Associated Press today showed Porterfield topped the American league with nine shutouts. Haddix set the pace in the National league with six.

For Porterfield, the 1953 season was a complete reversal of form over his showing of a year ago. In 1952 the 29-year-old righthander was on the losing end of seven shutouts, including three by 1-0 scores, and his won-loss record was 13-14.

While registering a 22-10 won-loss mark this year, Porterfield blanked Philadelphia three times, Chicago twice, and New York, St. Louis, Cleveland and Boston once each. Over one stretch he pitched three shutouts in a row and held the opposition scoreless for 29 consecutive innings. Two of his shutouts were one-hit games.

HADDIX JOINED the Cards at the end of the 1952 season after serving a two-year hitch in the Army. Dubbed "The Kitten" because of the resemblance in his pitching mannerisms to former teammate Harry "The Cat" Brecheen, he appeared in seven games, winning two and losing two.

The 28-year-old lefty started off the '53 season impressively by whitewashing the Cubs in his first start and he added five more along the way. Haddix ended up with 20 victories and nine defeats and his shutouts were achieved against Chicago and Cincinnati, twice each, and New York and Philadelphia, once each.

Runnerup to Porterfield in the American league listings was Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox with seven shutouts.

Midwest, South Dominate AP Poll Ratings; Irish 1st

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—The Midwest vs. South football rivalry, which has grown to considerable proportions this season, reaches a showdown stage Saturday when the nation's top-ranked college team, Notre Dame, encounters fourth-ranked Georgia Tech.

Those two sections dominate the Associated Press ranking poll for the fourth week of the 1953 season with Notre Dame clinging to a dwindling lead.

The top ten, chosen by the ballots of sports writers and broadcasters, includes four midwestern teams — Notre Dame, Michigan State, Michigan and Illinois; three from the South—Maryland, Georgia Tech and West Virginia; two from the Southwest — Baylor and Oklahoma; and a lone Eastern team—Navy.

For the most part, they're staying right in their own sectors for this weekend's games. That leaves it up to Notre Dame's Irish, who have topped the rankings since the start of the season, and Tech's Engineers, who have crept up to fourth place, to settle the inter-sectional argument.

Fears Lost to Rams

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20 (AP)—The football stock of the Los Angeles Rams took a sharp drop today as physicians announced that end Tom Fears suffered fractures of two vertebrae in Sunday's game against the Detroit Lions.

Because of the seriousness of the injury the star pass catcher has been placed on the ineligible list to make room for another active player.

Fears sustained the injury late in the Detroit game after catching a pass. He was on the ground and covered by Jack Christiansen when linebacker Jim David dived in.

behind to whip Pittsburgh last Saturday for its third straight victory, that performance evidently impressed the experts less than the scoring feats of the next three teams on the list. The Irish polled only 57 out of 134 first place votes—as compared to last week's 74—and 1153 points this week.

MICHIGAN STATE, another come-from-behind team, did it for the 12th time in a 28-game winning streak to beat Indiana, 47-18; Maryland romped over North Carolina, 26-0, for its fifth victory of the season, and slow-starting Georgia Tech hit a 36-6 scoring peak against Auburn to run its non-losing streak to 31 straight.

As a result, Michigan State drew 31 first place votes and 1107 points; Maryland 27 and 1004 and Georgia Tech 3 and 769.

Two new teams climbed into the first ten, displacing a pair of one-point losers. Oklahoma took ninth place after a 45-0 rout of Kansas and Navy's 65-7 shellacking of Princeton gave the Midshipmen tenth.

UCLA, loser to Stanford 21-20, dropped from fourth place to 12th in the rankings and Duke, beaten 14-13 by Army, fell from seventh to a tie with Kentucky for 16th.

This week Michigan State plays Purdue; Maryland meets Miami on Friday night; Michigan visits Minnesota; Baylor takes on 15-ranked Texas A. and M.; Illinois plays Syracuse; West Virginia, the Southern conference leader, meets VMI; Oklahoma plays Colorado and Navy plays Pennsylvania.

The top ten (first place votes in parentheses):
1. Notre Dame (57) 1153
2. Michigan State (31) 1107
3. Maryland (27) 1004
4. Georgia Tech (3) 769
5. Michigan 683
6. Baylor (1) 623
7. Illinois (1) 531

Do You Remember?

Those grand old days when Pottstown and area was in its infancy—Here's another photo that may recapture a few moments of eternity for you, a picture to stir your memory and let you catch a glimpse of the past.

Occasional victims of mistaken identity were these members of Pottstown's "East End Rangers" of 1930.

Opponents in Lancaster, Reading and West Reading occasionally confused the "Rangers" with a bigger, older team, the Pottstown "Steamrollers" and the "Rangers" opponents would recruit extra high school and college stars specially for the game.

The "Rangers" went to Reamstown, Lancaster county, with 25 men, ended the game with only 11 men able to play.

Players are (reading left to right in all rows): Front row, Frank "Chink" Axsmith, Frank Bauer, Capt. R. F. "Bud" Smale, Curly Altig, Lester Moyer.

Third row, John Eisinger, Pete Ott, Harry Ecker, Carl Yocum, Stephen Minnick, 15 Chestnut street, who loaned the picture, and Robert Herpst.

Top row, Walter "Bozo" Axsmith, John Prostovich, Jim Liggett, Mike Koren, Albert "Biggie" Ecker, Maurice "Red" Himes was absent.

Secretary Benson Cited By State Farm Group

HARRISBURG, Oct. 20 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Farmers' association today cited Secretary Ezra Taft Benson for his plans to reorganize the US Agriculture department.

At a meeting here, the association's board of directors said Benson's plan "is a step in the right direction."

Under the Benson proposals all current bureaus of the Agriculture department would be put under four main groups. These would include Federal-State programs, meeting, farm stabilization and agricultural credit.

15 Union Leaders Order Strike Vote

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Leaders of 15 unions today ordered a strike vote among one million non-operating railroad workers to back up demands for improved fringe benefits.

G. E. Leighty, chairman of a negotiating committee set up by the unions, announced at the same time that the unions have asked the National Mediation board to step into the five-months-old dispute.

He said he expects the mediation service to call a conference of both sides in an effort to head off any walkout.

The non-operating railroad workers are those who do not engage in the actual operation of trains.

Here's an Easy Way To Get Money Fast

LONDON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Four Britons each wagered sixpence (seven cents) Saturday in a giant soccer pool that they could pick eight consecutive tie games.

They hit the tie games right on the nose and today got their reward.

For their sixpence invested, each received 42,938 pounds ($120,226.40).

The ancient Romans carried cads with them as they marched through Europe.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

RECOMMENDED is A. Gayle Waldrop's story of a religious sect called the Doukhobours. Many years ago they emigrated from Russia to escape the tyranny of the Czars, and found freedom to worship in Canada. Unfortunately perhaps, the Doukhobours give homage to the Lord in a state of Eden-like nakedness. Not so long ago, a Doukhobour appeared in a town market place and proceeded to divest himself of his clothing. An outraged constable arrived, the all-but-nude Doukhobour fled and soon outdistanced the arm of the law. The latter, to run faster, discarded shirt, shoes, and trousers. And at last he collared the tired Doukhobour... Alas, when the two reentered the market place none could tell which was the Doukhobour and which was the constable!

finance and highway-sewer committee after a lengthy session on the borough dump issue, said, "I see they're taking out the meters on North Franklin street. And now when the traffic plan finally is approved we will be putting the meters back in along Franklin street because it will be a one-way street."

"We spend money taking meters out and then we turn around and put them back in. What kind of management is this?"

"Certainly we'll get no traffic plan under the present leadership. It seems to me something could be done in four years. But I'm beginning to believe now nothing ever will be done by the man who's made so many promises."

Paul Marshall, chairman of the highway-sewer committee, said a traffic plan should be developed. Paul P. Kohler, Second ward, asked how the man on the tiller of the Empire Hook and Ladder Fire company can see when he goes along North Franklin street. Weis asserted, "He can't see. His head is buried in the trees."

Griffith broke a council deadlock this past September on the no-parking ban on North Franklin street, between Beech and High street.

The ban was passed to relieve the dangerous traffic conditions along the street, created by old trees which grow over the curb.

Committee members approved an indentified sidewalk plan for the new East End shopping center of Charles S. Nagle.

The plan provides for parking adjacent to a receding curb and a sidewalk to the rear of the parking lot.

Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden and Marshall said they would ask E. J. Kinney, Ardmore, district engineer for the State Highway department, whether work on State street, promised by the State, will be completed this Fall.

The borough is installed curbing along the street, part of the agreement with the State.

ough limits without the fire chief's permission. "While the ban's on," Lindauer said yesterday, "I won't even give out permission to burn anything over."

While the current drought has not been accompanied by the high temperatures of the late-Summer drought, he said, it has come at a season when growth has stopped and foliage and grass is drying up, anyway.

For that reason, he said, he considered this drought even more hazardous.

The ban will be in effect throughout the borough.

became abusive and unco-operative while the firemen tried to learn how the fire had started.

THE GOOD Will chief intended to press charges against Brooks for interfering with firemen in the performance of their duty.

But at yesterday's hearing, Roth learned from Squire Yerger that no such charge could be lodged. Yerger explained that a man could be charged only with interfering with an officer while in the process of serving a writ.

There were no provisions made for persons interfering with firemen putting out a fire. But Chief Roth said last night, "We're going to get together and ask the borough to put it in the fire code. We know that such a provision exists in the State law and we're going to ask that it be incorporated into borough law so that others will know what the score is from now on."

The fire code, passed after a year's work in June of 1950, was described at the time by top fire underwriter officials as "one of the best fire codes in the State."

Numerous other communities in the State have since passed similar codes. The Mercury was awarded the Gold Medal of the National Association of Fire Underwriters in 1950 for the vigorous campaign and work expended in behalf of the code.

The chief continued, "When the fellows do go down there we don't like some of the remarks that are passed around. In fighting dump fires in re-

To maintain the new appearance of carpeting, experience proves that spots should be removed as they appear rather than doing an overall cleaning job once or twice each year.

There is available a foam cleaner that does not leave rings when removing spots since it contains no ammonia or solvents. The use of this foam when spots appear, preserves the new appearance and life of carpeting. This cleaner known as Flax Foam may be purchased at Block's, High and Charlotte Sts. Pottstown, Phone 3010 cent months firemen have spent 321 man hours.

Paul P. Kohler, Second ward, of health and sanitation committee, asked, "What are the firemen's views on this problem. After all the firemen are the only real authorities on fire in the borough and I believe we can benefit by your experience."

Lindauer said, "First, I don't think the dump is properly maintained. There's a man down there to watch the dump who at times isn't capable of telling what's going on."

J. Wayne Knause, Seventh ward, chairman of finance committee, said to the chief, "Dick, I think you have the right to go down there and tell him (Woodley) to remove a fire menace just as you would come out to my house or any other private home and direct us to remove a menace."

Lindauer said he wanted to be sure of the tieup between Woodley and the borough. President Henry Schmoeyer of the Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company asked to know why the garbage collector can't take paper. We've made a survey and find out the waste paper from the average home is more than 18 pounds per week.

"There's more than 100 pounds of old paper stored in attics and vacant rooms in the borough. If this menace isn't disposed of we're liable to have a number of serious fires in the borough."

President Henry Schmoeyer of the Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company asked to know why the garbage collector can't take paper. We've made a survey and find out the waste paper from the average home is more than 18 pounds per week.

"There's more than 100 pounds of old paper stored in attics and vacant rooms in the borough. If this menace isn't disposed of we're liable to have a number of serious fires in the borough."

The chief continued, "When the fellows do go down there we don't like some of the remarks that are passed around. In fighting dump fires in recent months firemen have spent 321 man hours.

Paul P. Kohler, Second ward, of health and sanitation committee, asked, "What are the firemen's views on this problem. After all the firemen are the only real authorities on fire in the borough and I believe we can benefit by your experience."

Lindauer said, "First, I don't think the dump is properly maintained. There's a man down there to watch the dump who at times isn't capable of telling what's going on."

J. Wayne Knause, Seventh ward, chairman of finance committee, said to the chief, "Dick, I think you have the right to go down there and tell him (Woodley) to remove a fire menace just as you would come out to my house or any other private home and direct us to remove a menace."

Lindauer said he wanted to be sure of the tieup between Woodley and the borough. the equipment. I feel no man wants to go down there and sink up to his neck in garbage and have the roaches crawl all over him.

"But we as firemen have no growl with this man, (Woodley) when the borough is responsible for providing the equipment and hasn't complied with its end of the bargain. Our first growl is with the borough."

RALPH L. Weis, chairman of fire committee, snapped, "Anything been done about securing a pump since council meeting?"

Gulden said, "You know how I operate around this community. As economically as I can for the community good. There are thousands of dumps all over the country and a good many of them burn all the time. If you want to spend the money I can get the pump."

Knause suggested, "Suppose we hear from Mr. Woodley."

Woodley asserted, "I didn't come here to talk. I didn't call the meeting. I came here to listen to a plan to stop the fires down there."

Knause asked Woodley, "How would you treat the equipment if we got it for you?"

Woodley said, "That's up to the borough manager."

A member of the fire delegation said, "Generally he has," Gulden said.

Engineer Charles Hartman of the Philadelphia company quickly analyzed the confusion. He asserted, "I think first of all the fault lies with the borough for not providing the equipment. I feel no man wants to go down there and sink up to his neck in garbage and have the roaches crawl all over him.

Leon E. Mayer, Republican committeeman, stated yesterday that "in view of the very noticeable absence of Republican office holders in any of the borough offices for the past 12 years, I feel it is now time for a change in a number of the borough vacancies being created this year."

Mayer's slate of Republican candidates who will endeavor to seek borough offices on Tuesday, Nov. 3 are as follows: Burgess, Lawrence M. Sands; councilmen, Russell R. Schaeffer, Harold Roth, Isaac Stauffer and Murray Crull; school director, Paul W. Landis; and tax collector, Earl S. Benfield.

The Democratic slate, all present office holders with one exception are: Burgess, James A. Fritz; councilmen, J. Clifford Leventz, George Y. Schoenly, Charles M. Edinger and newcomer, Wilson Hillpot; school director, incumbent Augustus D. Gresh; and tax collector, Paul R. Keyser, incumbent.

LITTLE GIRL, MATCHES CAUSE $200 FIRE HERE

Curtains, Blinds Flare
At Home on South
Hills Boulevard

A little girl's playing with matches resulted in a $200 fire yesterday afternoon in a South Hills boulevard home.

Firemen from the Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company and the Empire Hook and Ladder company answered the call, which was received at 4:25 p. m. No one was injured in the fire, they reported.

The fire was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Carolla, 967 South Hills boulevard. Mrs. Carolla said she didn't know how her seven-year-old daughter came to be playing with the matches.

"The first I knew there was a fire was when my daughter called, 'Mommie, there's a fire,'" she said.

"I didn't know where she meant, but when I went into the next room, the curtains were in flames," Mrs. Carolla continued.

The curtains, venetian blinds, paint around the woodwork and part of the floor all were burned in the second story bedroom and smoke damage also was caused.

Robert Roth, Good Will company fire chief, supervised operations at the fire.

Harry E. Yergy drove a Hook and Ladder truck and James Orr drove a pumper of the same company. George Mauger drove a pumper belonging to the Philadelphia company.

A Hook and Ladder smoke-ejector (high-powered fan) cleared smoke while the stream from a booster line was used to extinguish the flames.

Physician, Nurse, Dietitian Participate in PTA Session

Glimpses of the duties of a school physician were given by Dr. Raymond Reinbold at the Franklin PTA meeting.

Theme of the program was "The Family studies the student health problem."

Dr. Reinbold explained to the parents exactly what is entailed in the physical examination for the first, third and fifth grade children. He added that 85 to 90 percent of the defects were corrected between the examinations.

In his discussion of the policy regarding exclusion from school he indicated that the re-admission ruling necessitating a note from the school doctor after a three days' absence is for the protection of both the child and the other school children.

He reminded the group of isolation rulings in connection with communicable diseases and closed his talk with an explanation of the annual sanitary inspection of the school's lighting, heating and ventilation systems.

Mrs. Ethel McConnell, school nurse, explained how her work coordinated with that of the school doctor and dentist in making arrangements for and assisting with physical examinations and dental clinics.

She noted that teachers very often render first aid and then contact the school nurse. But she reminded the parents that no child is ever sent home alone, but remains under supervision until parental contact is made.

Mrs. Joseph Weikel, school dietitian, told the group that all junior and senior high school children may be assured of a well balanced noon meal whether he desires a dinner or only soup and sandwich.

She said that those children in the habit of well balanced meals at home often select the same at school. Because cafeterias are state subsidized they are able to serve their meals at a nominal fee. All meals, of course, must meet state regulations.

The meeting was conducted by the first vice president of the organization, Mrs. Paul Gross, in the absence of Mrs. William Hurter, who is attending the PTA convention in Philadelphia.

OLGA CHRISTMAN has been chosen for the leading role of Kathy, the village lass, in the Music Repertory's production of "The Student Prince," scheduled for Dec. 3 and 5 at the Junior High school.

Mrs. Christman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hritzko and the wife of James F. Christman. The couple resides at 215 Lee avenue.

The funds for the job also have been appropriated, Lamb said.

The project of constructing the four-bridge span across West High street will cost "several million dollars," Lamb estimated, probably about two-and-a-half million, although actual cost won't be known until the bids are opened.

The span would cross the Schuylkill river, the Pennsylvania railroad tracks, the Reading company's tracks, and West High street.

The northernmost end of the bridge will wind up at the King street level.

Lamb said he thought that work on the project might start this Winter.
